behalf of the Council and Mr Harper (representing the County Council) a discussion ensued between Counsel and Sir Herbert Jekyll in course of which Mr Burt (who attended as a Member of the County Council Light Railways Committee) stated that such Committee was not aware that any deviation had been made from the line originally fixed, and that the County Council were quite willing to carry out its obligation and were of opinion that the road should be widened to 50 feet except at points where the cost was prohibitive and even if there was no power at present were prepared if necessary to promote a further Order to obtain the power.

Thereupon, after further discussion it was arranged between Counsel (with the approval of Sir H. Jekyll) that if it should be found that the County Council had not the power to acquire the necessary land to make the widenings required by this Council the County Council would promote another Order to enable it to carry out the work in the manner suggested.
