CHAIRMAN'S REPORT:

To the Urban District Council of Hendon.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

In the report I have the pleasure of presenting to you, I refer to the principal operations of the Council during the past year and to other progressive steps which have been taken in the Council's activities which may be of interest to you.

One of the first matters in my year of office was the appointment of a succesor to Mr. Humphris, and in this connection it should be mentioned that the Council now have a Clerk and Solicitor, and the whole of their legal work is carried out in the Clerk's Department. The selection of Mr. Worden as Clerk to the Council has in my opinion already reflected credit on the Council's choice.

During the past year the activity which obtained at the commencement of the period has been maintained involving considerable expenditure in street improvements, amounting to the sum of £37,749, and in particular with regard to the making up of private streets a sum of not less than £42,232, has been expended on this work.

The scheme for the provision of a new Isolation Hospital has been sanctioned, and the erection of the hospital is now in progress.

Another important feature in connection with the Council's services is that of the inauguration of the Refuse Disposal plant which has taken place.

Another scheme has been sanctioned, namely the first portion of the Council's Public Library, and I believe a commencement will shortly be made on this building.

Building developments are proceeding in all parts of the district and during the year 2651 houses have been erected.

The Council's Town Planning Scheme has advanced a further stage during the year, and schemes Nos. 1 and 2, have now been combined to provide one comprehensive scheme for the district.

Dealing with the important question of Housing, the Council have maintained their activity in this direction and it is interesting to record that during the past year 107 houses have been let, and the scheme is now under the consideration of the Ministry of Health for the erection of a further 314 houses at Clitterhouse Lane.

The provision of open spaces is a matter which has received the careful consideration of the Council and further open spaces have been acquired during the year having an area of 69 acres.

In the Council's Parks and Open Spaces considerable improvements have been decided upon, which will no doubt be carried out during the coming year.

On the London County Council Watling Estate further development has taken place and there are at present 1800 to 2000 houses erected.

The Council have, in connection with their Medical Services Scheme, made provision for a Welfare Centre and a School Clinic on this Estate.

The Council received confirmation of the order for the compulsory acquisition of certain land for allotments in Central Hendon, and Mill Hill and wherever possible the Council secure land for this purpose.

The growth of the district has necessitated a division of the Wards into further polling districts and this has recently been approved by the Middlesex County Council.

An important feature in connection with the Fire Protection of the District has been the scheme for the erection of a Fire Station at Mill Hill, which will serve not only the immediate vicinity but a wide area from the Mill Hill Fire Station.

The Council have received confirmation during the year of a series of Bye-Laws dealing with Tents, Vans, and Sheds, Bye-Laws under the Housing Act as to Houses let in Lodgings and as to New Streets and Buildings.

Dealing with the question of Public Health it is interesting to record the following Vital Statistics for the district relating to the past year :—

OVERCROWDING AND HOUSING CONDITIONS: The Public Health Committee considered from time to time reports as to cases of overcrowding and 114 cases were reported and in 44 cases overcrowded families were provided with Council Houses.

In regard to Sanitary work, the following table gives a brief resumé of the inspection work performed during the year :—

Complaints received and investigated	662
Inspections and re-visits in connection with Sanitary work ...	5016
Total number of sanitary defects dealt with and remedied ...	2723
Visits paid to infected houses re disinfection, etc.	844

Number of drains tested and examined	199
Drainage plans considered and approved by Public Health Committee for reconstruction of drainage	34

Lastly, but not least, the Council have approved of a new set of Standing Orders and have re-organized their Committee system, and it is hoped that the new arrangements will prove to be an improvement on the system previously in operation. They have also consolidated the Education Scheme.

The important question relative to alteration of boundaries in N.W. Middlesex has occupied careful consideration and the Local Inquiries are now being held into the various applications.

In conclusion, I would like to take this opportunity of thanking the members of the Council for their kind consideration and courtesy to me throughout my year of office. The Officers of the Council have given me every possible consideration, and to them also I desire to tender my thanks. Their various departments appear to be organized in a very efficient manner.

I am, Ladies and Gentlemen,

Yours very respectfully,

It will be observed from the above schedule that all schools, with the exception of Child's Hill Council Mixed School, qualify for the same grades as for the year 1927/8. A letter has been received from the Headmaster of Child's Hill stating that an average of 16 has been lost during 1927/8 owing to infectious diseases, etc., but even granting this allowance the average for the 3 years would not entitle the school to be placed in Grade V.

With regard to the Garden Suburb Council Boys and Girls' Schools and All Saints' C. of E. Infants' School, it will be noticed that the average for the 3 years has again fallen, although in the Boys' Department of the Garden Suburb the numbers on roll now show a tendency to increase.

If the Committee approve the grading as shown in Column 4 of the above schedule, instructions are required as to the payment of salaries to the Head Teachers of the schools mentioned in the above two paragraphs of this report.

COUNTY OF MIDDLESEX.

WHEREAS the part of the Administrative County of Middlesex which is defined in these regulations is not provided with adequate means for the treatment of persons therein who may be affected with small pox and the county council of that county have, in conformity with the provisions of section 2 of the Public Health (Prevention and Treatment of Disease) Act, 1913, consented to provide or arrange for the provision of treatment for such persons, and it is expedient that the regulations hereinafter set forth should be made with regard to such treatment, and for preventing the spread of small pox in the county.

NOW THEREFORE, the Minister of Health, in the exercise of the powers conferred on him by the Public Health Acts, 1875 to 1925, and the Public Health (Prevention and Treatment of Disease) Act, 1913, and every other power enabling him in that behalf hereby makes the following regulations and also declares and directs as follows :—

(1) He shall immediately report the case to the county medical officer of health and to the medical superintendent of the hospital to which it may be desired to remove the patient.

(2) He shall subject to any directions which may be given by the county medical officer of health, immediately cause the necessary steps to be taken to secure the isolation and treatment of the patient in such hospital.

Assistant Secretary, Ministry of Health.

RESOLVED TO RECOMMEND—That the following observations on such Draft Regulations be forwarded to the Minister of Health :—

The Hendon Council therefore feel that the Regulations should provide for the County Council ceasing to be the Authority responsible for the treatment in cases of Small Pox, it at any time the arrangements with the Metropolitan Asylums Board should be terminated.

2.—The Financial arrangements for the transfer to the County Council of the Clare Hall and Yedding Institutions should be completed and the terms of the Provisional Order for the dissolution of the Joint Hospital Board settled, in order that the Provisional Order and the Regulations creating the County Council the responsible Authority may operate simultaneously.

3.—The second clause of paragraph 1 " Definitions " should be amended as follows :—

The expression " defined part of the County " means (until any Urban District Council shall to the satisfaction of the Minister of Health, itself, make adequate provision for cases of Small Pox, which may arise within its District) the area of the Administrative County of Middlesex exclusive of the Urban District of Willesden.

It was not considered possible for satisfactory arrangements to be made with the Metropolitan Asylums Board for a period of years otherwise than for a specific area.

The staff appointed for the school is at present distributed for temporary duties at various schools throughout the district.

PART II.—STREETS.

Interpretation.

4. In this Part of the Scheme, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words and expressions have the respective meanings hereby assigned to them:—

"Street" includes a part of a street;

"Width" applied to a new street means the space intended to be used as a public way, measured at right angles to the direction of the street;

"The Act of 1875" and "the Act of 1925," mean respectively, the Public Health Act, 1875, and the Public Health Act, 1925, as amended by any subsequent Acts whether public, local or private;

"Private street" means a street within the meaning of the Act of 1875 not being a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large;

"Incidental works" means any slopes, approaches, embankments, cuttings, retaining walls, bridges, arches, girders, culverts, drains, or other works necessary and incidental to the construction of a street, and includes any works required for fencing the street;

"Street works" includes the works referred to in Section 150 of the Act of 1875, and the execution of any incidental works and of any works required for planting a street with grass, trees, or shrubs, and erecting guards therefor, or treating it in other suitable manner;

"The making" of a street means the execution of all necessary street works from the commencement to the final completion of the street.

A "standard street" means a street with the minimum dimensions specified for, and fulfilling the conditions attached to, the street of Type "A" described in the First Schedule to this Scheme, and constructed in accordance with the specification which would ordinarily be required by the Council at the time as a condition of declaring the street to be a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large.

An apportionment of the cost of street works against any land or premises means an apportionment of the cost according to the frontage of the land or premises under Section 150 of the Act of 1875, and recovery of the cost means recovery in a summary manner or by means of a private improvement rate under Section 213 of that Act.

APPLICATION OF PUBLIC HEALTH ACT, 1875, AND 1925.

5. Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, the provisions of the Act of 1875 relating to private streets, and Section 82 of the Act of 1925, shall apply to and have effect in the Area with the modifications set out below:—

(1) The Act of 1875 shall apply to all street works as defined in this Part of the Scheme.

(2) In the case of any private street declared to be a street under Clause 6—

(a) Where street works are executed by the Council upon or in connection with the street, the cost of any works executed by the Council and required for fencing the street or for constructing a bridge over or under any railway, river or canal, or any viaduct or subway, and any expense in excess of the cost of constructing upon the site of the street a standard street shall be borne by the Council and shall not be apportioned against any premises;

(b) In making an apportionment against any premises of the cost of street works executed upon or in connection with the street, account shall be taken of any apportionment previously made against the premises, and of the amount and value of any works, other than temporary works, previously done by any owner of the premises upon or in connection with the street;

(c) Any dispute or grievance arising out of the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this sub-clause shall be determined in the manner provided by the Act of 1875 for the determination of disputes and grievances as to the apportionment and recovery of expenses of private street works under that Act;

(d) Any sum apportionable by the Council under the Act of 1875 as modified by this Scheme in respect of the cost of the execution of street works may be varied by agreement between the Council and the person chargeable, and for giving effect to any such agreement the Council may, if they think fit, themselves defray the whole or a part of the sum so apportionable;

(e) The provisions of Section 82 of the Act of 1925, which require the Council on the application of the persons therein mentioned to declare a street to be a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large, shall apply to the street as soon as it has been made by the Council or in accordance with the specification approved by the Council under Clause 10;

(f) Where street works are executed by the Council upon or in connection with the street, no expenses incurred in executing the street works and apportioned against land which is rated as agricultural land only, or used as woodlands, whether rated as agricultural land or not, shall be recoverable until the land becomes rated otherwise than as agricultural land, or ceases to be used as woodlands;

If a part only of such land becomes rated otherwise than as agricultural land, or ceases to be used as woodlands, then only the portion of the expenses attributable to that part shall become recoverable;

Provided that when and so soon as 75 per cent. of the land of any owner becomes rated otherwise than as agricultural land, the whole of the expenses then outstanding and payable by the said owner shall be recoverable.

Interest shall not be payable to the Council on any moneys in respect of the time during which under this sub-clause they are irrecoverable;

(g) The Council may, if they think fit, postpone the date on which any expenses which they are entitled to recover from any person under the Act of 1875 as modified by this Scheme become recoverable.

(3) In the case of any other private street for which the Council under Clause 10 approve a specification involving any greater cost than the cost of constructing on the site thereof a standard street, otherwise than by agreement with the owner, the modifications set out in this Clause other than modifications 2 (f) and 2 (g), shall have effect.

Sites of New Streets and Widenings.

6.—(1) The purposes of this Scheme shall include the execution of street works upon land coloured pink on the Map, which land is in this Scheme referred to as land reserved for streets, and the execution of incidental works upon adjoining land.

(2) (a) The Council may declare any land coloured pink on the Map to be a street, after giving not less than three months' notice of their intention so to do to the persons interested in the land.

The land so declared shall thereupon, in the case of land numbered 45 and 49 on the Map, be deemed to be a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large, and in the case of any other land be deemed to be a private street and to have been dedicated to the public, and the Council may enter upon such highway or private street for the purpose of executing street works;

(b) The Council may, after giving not less than three months' notice to the persons interested in any land which adjoins any of the land reserved for streets, and is required for the purpose of executing any incidental works, enter upon such land and execute such works;

(c) So far as may be necessary for the purpose of executing street works the Council may demolish or alter any buildings or other works on the aforesaid lands.

(3) Where any land reserved for streets becomes, by declaration under this Clause, a private street, the Council may declare any adjoining land belonging to them and required for the purpose of executing incidental works to be, and the same shall thereupon be deemed to be, a part of the private street.

(4) (a) The Council shall have the same responsibility for maintaining any works executed by them upon or in connection with any private street declared to be a street under this Clause, or for which under Clause 10 they approve a specification involving any greater cost than the cost of constructing on the site thereof a standard street, otherwise than by agreement with the owner, as they would have if the street were a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large;

(b) The Council may at any time, after giving reasonable notice to the owner, enter upon land forming the site of any incidental works for the purpose of maintaining such works.

(5) If it appears to the Council at any time that a new street or the widening of an existing highway is needed on any land not reserved for streets on the Map, they may make an Order with the approval of the Minister, declaring that the land shall be reserved for streets, and the land shall thereafter be subject to such of the provisions of this Part of the Scheme as are applicable to land reserved for streets by the Scheme.

Widenings Chargeable upon Frontagers.

7. If any of the land reserved for streets which abuts on, and is intended to form the site of a widening of, an existing highway is declared under Clause 6 to be a private street, then—

(1) The part of the existing highway upon which the land abuts shall as to its whole width be deemed for the purposes of the Act of 1875 as applied by this Part of the Scheme to be a part of the private street.

(2) In the application of the provisions of Clause 5 to the street, the width of the existing highway shall be included in the measurement of the width of a standard street, and account shall be taken of the amount and value of any existing works on the highway in making any apportionment against any premises, whether the works were done by the owner of the premises or not.

(3) (a) Where the existing highway is a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large, no part of the cost of any street works executed by the Council shall be apportioned against any land, except woodlands, which was rated otherwise than as agricultural land on 12th February, 1923, or in the case of the lands edged yellow on the Map, 23rd February, 1925, and is so rated at the date of the apportionment of such cost, and the part of such cost which by reason of this sub-clause cannot be apportioned against such land shall be borne and paid by the Council;

(b) Any dispute or grievance arising out of the provisions of this sub-clause shall be determined in the manner provided by the Act of 1875 for the determination of disputes and grievances as to the apportionment and recovery of expenses of private street works under that Act.

Construction of Sewers.

8. Where a sewer is constructed by the Council under any land reserved for streets before the land becomes, or is declared under this Part of the Scheme to be, a private street, the Council may, after the land has become or been declared to be a private street, include the cost of the sewer in the expenses of any street works executed by them upon the street in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if they had constructed the sewer under the street under the provisions of Section 150 of the Act of 1875 as modified by this Scheme.

Restrictions upon Street Sites.

9. No building, whether permanent or temporary, shall be erected, or other work of a permanent character done upon any land reserved for streets, and no permanent excavation shall be undertaken on or near thereto, which, for the purpose of enabling street works to be executed, would require to be removed, pulled down, altered or restored, except with the consent of the Council and upon such terms and conditions with regard to such removal, pulling down, alteration or restoration, or otherwise as the Council may require.

CONSTRUCTION OF STREETS BY OWNERS.

10.—(1) Any person desiring to lay out or construct a new street, whether on land reserved for streets or not, shall, before laying out the street, submit to the Council for approval—

(a) A plan showing the site of the proposed street, the lay out of the street to formation level (including turning and crossing places, if any), and the position of the street in relation to neighbouring streets; and

(b) Sections showing the levels of the present surface of the ground above ordnance datum, the level and rate or rates of inclination of the proposed street, the level and inclination of all the existing or intended streets with which the street is to be connected, and, so far as necessary and practicable, the intended levels of the building sites on each side of the street; and, before at any time executing any street works, other than temporary works, for the construction of the street—

(c) Specifications of the street works from time to time proposed to be executed and the materials to be used.

(2) Every proposed new street approved by the Council under this Clause shall be one of the following types of streets, namely—

(a) If in the opinion of the Council the street is likely to be used for through traffic, one of the types of streets described in Part I of the First Schedule to this scheme, with such departures as the Council think fit from the provisions of the said Schedule as regards levels and construction of surface;

(b) If in the opinion of the Council the street is not likely to be used for through traffic, one of the types described in Part II of the said Schedule or such other type as the Minister may from time to time authorize the Council to approve.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, the Council shall have power by order to approve the plans, sections, and specifications of the proposed street, with or without modifications, or to disapprove them;

(3) Where the Council under this Clause require a street to be laid out at a higher cost than that of laying out a standard street on the site of the proposed street, or street works to be executed at a higher cost than that of executing corresponding street works for the construction of a standard street on the site of the proposed street, otherwise than by agreement with the owner, the Council shall themselves bear the excess cost.

(4) Any person laying out or constructing a street shall lay it out and construct it in accordance with the plans, sections and specification approved by the Council under this Clause; and all the conditions applicable thereto contained in the First Schedule to this Scheme or in the approval of the Council shall be binding on him, and, in so far as they relate to the user of any adjoining land, on all persons deriving title under him to that land.

(5) The Council may permit any street temporarily to be laid out or constructed of less width, or with narrower carriageway and footways, than authorized by them in approving the street, if they are satisfied, that this may properly be allowed in the particular case.

(6) Where the Council grant a permission under the preceding sub-clause, the provisions of the Act of 1875 and of Section 82 of the Act of 1925, as modified by this Scheme, with regard to declaring streets to be highways repairable by the inhabitants at large shall apply to the part of the street which is allowed to be constructed in advance of the remainder; but the Council may subsequently proceed under the Act of 1875 and Section 82 of the Act of 1925, as modified by this Scheme, as regards the remainder of the street as though it were a new street.

(7) The Council may, if they think fit, contribute towards the cost of constructing a street approved under this Clause.

(8)—(a) Any person who desires to lay out a new street and feels aggrieved by any neglect or refusal of the Council to approve the plans or sections of the street under this Clause or by any modifications made by them in those plans or sections, may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him.

In determining appeals under this Clause the Minister shall have the same power of approval, with or without modification, and of disapproval, and of granting permission, as the Council under this Clause.

(b) In the event of any dispute arising between any owner and the Council as to any specification of street works under this Clause, or as to whether the cost of laying out a street or executing any street works in pursuance of a requirement under this Clause is in excess of the cost of laying out a standard street, or executing corresponding street works for the construction of a standard street, on the site of the proposed street, or as to the amount of such excess, the owner may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him to determine the matter.

NOTICE OF COMMENCEMENT AND COMPLETION OF STREETS.

11.—(1) Any person who proposes to lay out or to construct a street, shall, before commencing to do so, give notice to the Council of the date on which he proposes to commence the work.

If this notice is not given and the duly authorized officer of the Council, on inspecting any work in connection with the street, finds that the work is so far advanced that he cannot ascertain whether anything has been done or omitted contrary to the provisions of this Scheme or to the conditions upon which approval of the street has been granted, the officer may give notice, within a reasonable time after inspection, to such person requiring him, within a reasonable time to be specified in the notice, to remove, lay open, or pull down so much of the work as prevents the officer from ascertaining whether anything has been done or omitted as aforesaid.

If the said person fails or refuses to comply with the requisition, the Council may themselves remove, lay open, or pull down so much of the work as aforesaid and may recover from him the expenses incurred by them.

(2) Every person who has laid out or constructed a street shall give notice thereof to the Council within a reasonable time after the completion of the lay out or construction.

SUBMISSION OF SCHEMES OF DEVELOPMENT OF ESTATES.

12.—(1) Whenever a plan for a new street is submitted to the Council for approval, they shall by written notice request the owner of any land within that part of the Area, the development of which will, in their opinion, be affected by the construction of the street to furnish them with plans and particulars showing generally a scheme for the development or laying out of the land.

(2) Before making an Order approving the plan for the new street the Council shall take into consideration any plans and particulars which are furnished to them by any such owner within a reasonable time to be specified in the notice, being not less than one month from the date of the notice.

POSTPONEMENT OF STREET CONSTRUCTION AND CONSTRUCTION BY STAGES—SPECIAL PROVISIONS.

13.—(1) Where the Council execute street works upon any street declared under Clause 6, the Council shall plant with grass, trees or shrubs, or treat in other suitable manner any part of the street not constructed as carriageway or footway, and shall provide convenient access from the carriageways and footways to any premises abutting on the street at the time of its construction, and shall execute any works necessary for fencing off the street from the adjoining lands or for replacing any fences removed.

(2) Where land reserved for streets is purchased by the Council or any other Local Authority other than the Middlesex County Council for the purpose of the widening of an existing street and the land is not forthwith added to the street, or where land so reserved is purchased for the purpose of the construction of a new street and a new street is constructed at first on a portion only of the land so purchased, the occupier of the land from which the land acquired is severed, and other persons with his permission, shall be entitled in the meantime to reasonable access across the land so purchased to and from the street, and shall have the same rights in regard to the laying, altering, maintaining, repairing and renewing of drains, mains, pipes or electric lines in such land as if the same were part of the street.

Damage to Street Works.

14. No person shall wilfully damage any tree, shrub, plant, or grass in any street or any fence or guard erected thereon, and no person shall wilfully ride or drive any horse, cattle or vehicle over or across any grass margin.

Adjustment of Boundaries of Streets.

15. For the purpose of adjusting the boundary of any street, the Council may make an exchange of land forming part of the street for other land, with or without paying or receiving any money for equality of exchange.

Diversion or Stopping Up of Highways.

16.—(1) Each of the public highways numbered 1 and 2 on the Map and specified in the first column in the Second Schedule to this Scheme is hereby declared to be diverted or stopped up, and all public rights therein are declared to cease as from the date on which the proposed new streets, the number of which is set opposite to that highway in the second column of the said Schedule, is constructed to the satisfaction of the Council and opened for public traffic.

(2) The Council may within six months after the date on which a highway, or any portion thereof, is diverted or stopped up, remove therefrom, without payment, any road material of which the highway is constructed or which is lying thereon.

(3) The diversion or stopping up of a highway under this Clause shall not affect the rights of the Council or of any statutory undertakers or other persons in any sewers, gas or water mains, electric cables or wires, or other works lying on or under the highway, and the Council and such statutory undertakers and other persons shall have the same powers of inspection, maintenance and repair of such works and connection thereto, and of entry upon the land for that purpose, as if the highway had not been diverted or stopped up:

Provided that the Council may, if they think fit, divert or transfer any such works and execute any works necessary and incidental to such diversion or transfer, and may enter into agreements for the purpose, but no such diversion or transfer shall take place until notice has been given to any statutory undertakers affected.

Saving for Lands of Statutory Companies, etc.

17. Nothing in this Part of the Scheme shall affect the site of any ancient monument or other object of archæological interest, nor, except in so far as may be agreed between the Council and the local authority or any persons interested in the land, any land which was before the 12th February, 1923, or in the case of the lands edged yellow on the Map, the 23rd February, 1925, the property of any local authority so long as it remains their property, or any land which was before such dates held or used for any of the purposes referred to in paragraph 2 of Part II of the Third Schedule to the Act, so long as the land continues to be held or used for those purposes.

Combined Buildings and Building Units.

19.—(1) Where a proposed building is designed for use both as a shop and as a dwelling for a single family, it shall be treated, for the purposes of this Part of the Scheme, as if it were a shop.

(2) Subject as aforesaid, where a proposed building is designed for more than one use, the Council may decide for which of the uses the building shall be deemed to be designed for the purposes of this Part of the Scheme, and the Council may decide that the building shall be deemed to be designed for different uses for different purposes of this Part of the Scheme.

(3) For the purposes of this Part of the Scheme a dwelling-house shall be reckoned as one building unit, and a building other than a dwelling-house as such number of building units as the Council may decide.

(4) The owner of any building or of the site of any proposed building who feels aggrieved by a decision of the Council under this Clause in respect of the building or proposed building may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him.

PRIMARY ZONING.

A.—Density of Buildings.

Erection of Dwelling-Houses and Residential Buildings.

20.—No dwelling-house or residential building shall be erected upon land not included in a land unit.

The erection of a building for the purposes of this Clause includes the conversion of any building into a dwelling-house or residential building.

Declaration of Land Units.

21.—(1) Subject to the following provisions the Council shall, upon application being made to them by any owner of land, or jointly by two or more owners of adjoining land, declare that the land in respect of which the application is made or such part thereof as they think fit shall form one or more land units.

For this purpose the submission by an owner of a building plan for a dwelling-house or residential building shall be deemed to be an application for the declaration of a land unit in respect of the land included in the plan.

(2) The Council may include in a land unit land belonging to the applicant other than that to which the application relates, but shall not, except with the consent of the applicant, so include the curtilage of an existing building. The Council may also include in the unit any land given by or acquired from the applicant for the purpose of a public open space or allotments after 12th February, 1923, or in the case of lands edged yellow on the Map, 23rd February, 1925.

(3) The Council may require the applicant to submit a plan showing the whole of his land which is not already included in a land unit or such part thereof as they think fit.

(4) No land unit shall exceed seven acres in extent.

(5) The half of the width of any road dedicated to the public upon which any land proposed to be included in a land unit abuts shall be included in the land unit.

(6) Where the curtilages of any new buildings erected on a land unit are partly within and partly without the Area, the curtilages shall be treated as wholly within the land unit on which the buildings are erected for the purpose of any calculation of the number of building units on the land unit under the Scheme;

Provided that the Council may make it a condition of the curtilages being so treated that no building units calculated in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme, are erected on the portion of the curtilage outside the area in excess of the number that could have been erected in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme, if the whole of the curtilage had been within the Area and included in the land unit.

Calculation of Number of Building Units which may be Erected.

22.—(1) In the case of a land unit in respect of which a plot plan is not submitted to and approved by the Council under the next succeeding Clause, the number of building units on the land unit shall not at any time exceed the number obtained by multiplying the number of acres in the land unit by the average per acre specified in the Table below for the density zone in which the land is situate, or, where the land unit is situate in more than one density zone, the sum of the numbers obtained by multiplying the number of acres in the land unit within each zone by the average per acre specified in the Table below for that zone. For this purpose all buildings included in the land unit by consent of the owner under Clause 21 (2), shall be taken into account.

A	Coloured dark brown ...	8
B	Coloured light brown ...	12

(2) Where it appears to the Council upon representation being made by any owner of land that it would be unreasonable to require compliance with the provisions of this Clause owing to difficulty in developing the land in accordance with those provisions on account of—

(i) the lay out of any street on or adjoining the land constructed before 12th February, 1923, or, in the case of the lands edged yellow on the Map, 23rd February, 1925,

(ii) the small amount of land in the possession of the owner on 12th February, 1923, or, in the case of the lands edged yellow on the Map, 23rd February, 1925, the Council may authorize a reasonable increase in the number of building units permitted to be erected on the land affected.

Plot Plans.

23.—(1) Any owner of land within a land unit may, for the purpose of having the number of building units permitted to be erected on that land determined prior to sale or for any other reason, submit for the approval of the Council a plot plan showing the plots within the unit upon which it is proposed to build and the number of building units proposed to be erected on each plot.

(2) The Council shall not approve a plot plan submitted to them under this Clause unless the following conditions are complied with—

(a) The curtilage of every building existing or commenced upon the land unit at the date of submission of the plot plan must be included in one or more of the plots;

(b) The average number of building units shown on the plot plan as proposed to be erected per acre over the land unit must not exceed the average per acre permitted under the last preceding Clause.

Erection of Buildings upon Land for which a Plot Plan has been Approved.

24. Where a plot plan for a land unit has been submitted to and approved by the Council under the last preceding Clause—

(1) No building shall be erected on any land within the land unit not included in a plot shown on the plot plan.

(2) There shall not be erected upon any plot a greater number of building units than would give (together with the equivalent in building units of any buildings existing or commenced upon the plot at the date of submission of the plot plan) the number marked on the plot on the plot plan.

Variation of Land Units and Plot Plans.

25.—(1) The Council may from time to time vary any land unit, but before doing so they shall notify the owner of the land comprised within the unit.

(2) The owner of any land comprised within a plot plan may at any time, with the consent of the Council, vary the plot plan in so far as it affects his land.

Provided that no variation of a land unit or plot plan shall be made which would be inconsistent with the provisions of this Part of the Scheme in regard to the density of buildings.

Land Units vested in more than one Owner.

26. In the event of the land comprised in a land unit in respect of which a plot plan has not been approved by the Council being or becoming vested in more than one owner and of the owners failing to agree as to the number of building units to be erected on their respective portions of the land, the Council shall, upon the application of the owner of any portion of the land, determine as between the applicant and the remaining owners what proportion of the maximum permissible number of building units may be erected on the portion belonging to the applicant and on the remainder of the land unit respectively.

Registration.

27. The Council shall keep, so as to be available for inspection by any person interested:—

(1) a register identifying each land unit by reference to a map and showing the date on which the unit was fixed or varied, the number of building units fixed in pursuance of Clause 19 in respect of any building erected on the land unit, and the particulars and the date of any apportionment made by the Council under the preceding Clause as between owners of land included in the land unit;

(2) a copy of each plot plan approved by the Council.

Appeals.

28. The owner of any land within a land unit who feels aggrieved by a decision of the Council declaring or varying a land unit, or any neglect or refusal of the Council to approve, or consent to the variation of, a plot plan for the land unit, and the owner of any land who feels aggrieved by any neglect or refusal of the Council to authorise an increase in the number of building units permitted to be erected on his land in pursuance of sub-clause (2) of Clause 22 may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him.

B.—Character of Buildings.

Character Zones.

29.—(1) (a) The predominant use for which each of the several zones referred to in the first column of the following Table is intended to be reserved is the use indicated in that column, and the classes of buildings which may be erected either with or without the consent of the Council, as the case may be, or may not be erected in each zone, shall be as set out in the third, fourth and fifth columns of the Table, but nothing in this Clause shall prevent

(i) the erection of buildings required for agricultural or horticultural purposes, or pavilions and similar buildings required for purposes of non-professional games, sports or recreations, upon land which is for the time being used for those purposes;

(ii) the erection or construction of buildings or works in connection with the disposal of sewage upon the land edged and hatched purple on the Map.

Table of Character Zones.

Zone	Reference to Map	Buildings which may be erected without Council's consent	Buildings which may be erected only with Council's consent	Buildings not to be erected
1	2	3	4	5
Residential A	Coloured light and dark brown	Dwelling-houses and residential buildings	Buildings other than dwelling-houses, residential buildings and buildings for noxious trade or industry. But consent not to be required to the erection or construction of buildings or works for use in connection with the disposal of sewage upon the land edged and hatched purple	Buildings for noxious trade or industry
Special business B	Hatched grey	Shops and business premises	Dwelling-houses, residential buildings, public buildings and special buildings	Industrial buildings not included in the definition of a shop and buildings for noxious trade or industry
General C	Cross hatched purple	Buildings other than buildings for noxious trade or industry	Buildings for noxious trade or industry

(b) In giving their consent to the erection of a building the Council may impose such conditions as they think fit;

(c) In the case of any building proposed to be erected in zone A, which may be erected only with the consent of the Council, the Council, in giving or withholding their consent or imposing any conditions, shall have regard to the likelihood of the use for which the building is designed injuring the amenity of the zone, including, in the case of an industrial building, the likelihood of any injury due to the emission of smoke or fumes, or to dust, noise or smell, or other cause.

(2) In any zone in which the erection of buildings designed for a particular purpose is not permitted, the user of a building for that purpose shall be a contravention of this Scheme, and in any zone in which the erection of buildings designed for a particular purpose is permissible only with the consent of the Council, the user of a building for that purpose without the consent of the Council shall be a contravention of this Scheme:

Provided that nothing in this sub-clause shall prevent—

(a) an existing building from being used for any purpose for which it was designed to be used or was used on the 12th February, 1923, or in the case of lands edged yellow on the Map, 23rd February, 1925. Except that:—

(i) where the use of an existing building for any purpose for which it was designed to be used or was used on 12th February, 1923, or in the case of lands edged yellow on the Map, the 23rd February, 1925, has been discontinued for a period of more than six months ending on any date after the commencement of this scheme, its use for that purpose shall not be resumed in virtue of this proviso without the consent of the Council.

(ii) where an existing building is so designed as to be adapted for use for more than one of the types of buildings defined in Clause 18, it shall not in virtue of this proviso be used without the Council's consent for any of the types for which it is adapted to be used other than the one first in order in that definition, unless already so used on 12th February, 1923, or in the case of lands edged yellow on the Map, the 23rd February, 1925.

(iii) where a part only of an existing building was designed to be used or was used on 12th February, 1923, or in the case of lands edged yellow on the Map, the 23rd February, 1925, for any purpose for which an existing building may be used under this proviso, the existing floor space used for that purpose shall not without the consent of the Council be increased by more than one-fifth, whether the additional floor space is contained within the existing building or in addition to the existing building;

(b) the occupant of any dwelling-house or residential building, or any member of his family, from practising therein any profession or occupation not involving any public display of goods in a window or otherwise or the exhibition of any advertisement or sign, except signs or notices ordinarily exhibited on dwelling-houses to indicate the name and profession or occupation of the occupant;

(c) the occupant of any dwelling-house from letting lodgings or apartments therein otherwise than for occupation as separately rated premises.

(3) (a) The Council shall, as soon as may be, give notice by advertisement in some local newspaper circulating in the Area of any application made for their consent under this Clause—

(i) to the erection in zone A of an industrial building, a shop, business premises, or a special building, or to the user for the purpose of any such building of any building in that zone; or

(ii) to the erection in zone C of a building for noxious trade or industry.

The notice shall be at the cost of the applicant and shall state that any objections addressed to the Council in writing within 14 days after the date of the advertisement will be considered;

(b) The Council shall take into consideration any objections received within the said period of 14 days, and shall thereupon decide to give or withhold their consent or to give their consent upon such conditions as they think fit, and shall forthwith serve a notice of their decision upon the applicant and upon any person objecting to the application under paragraph (a) of this sub-clause;

(c) A decision of the Council under this Clause shall not take effect until the expiration of 21 days from the date on which the applicant and the objectors, if any, are notified of the decision, or, if an appeal has been made to the Minister under the provisions of this Clause, until such appeal is disposed of.

(4) (a) Any person who has applied for any consent of the Council under this Clause and feels aggrieved by any neglect or refusal of the Council to give consent or by any conditions imposed by the Council may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him;

(b) Any person who feels aggrieved by any decision of the Council to give consent to the erection of, or user of a building as, an industrial building, a shop, business premises or a special building in zone A, or to the erection of any building other than an industrial building in zone C, or to the user of any building in that zone for any purpose other than the purpose of an industrial building, may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him, and shall forthwith notify the Council of the application.

(5) (a) The provisions of this Clause as regards consent to the erection and use of buildings for trade or industry and appeals in connection therewith shall be in substitution for the provisions of the Public Health Acts (and any Acts amending the same) as to consent and appeal in respect of the establishment of offensive trades.

(b) The erection of a building for the purposes of this Clause includes the conversion of a building of any of the types defined in Clause 18 into a building of any other of those types.

SUPPLEMENTARY ZONING.

Density and Character.

30. If at any time the Council are of opinion that—

(a) the buildings to be erected in any part of a character zone ought to be limited to one or more of the classes of buildings which are permitted under Clause 29 to be erected in that zone; or

(b) any class or classes of buildings which, under the provisions of Clause 29 may only be erected in any character zone with the consent of the Council can, consistently with the predominant use of the zone, be permitted to be erected in any part of the zone without such consent; or the Council may make an Order for the purpose with the approval of the Minister:

(c) the average number of building units permitted under Clause 22 to be erected per acre ought to be varied over the whole or any part of density zones A and B;

Provided that no Order shall be made which would allow the average number of building units permitted to be erected per acre in density zones A and B to be increased to more than 15.

Height of Buildings.

Limitation of Height of Buildings.

31.—(1) No building (not being an industrial building or a building for noxious trade or industry erected in character zone C) shall be so erected, extended or altered that:—

(a) the highest point of the building, measured from the mean level of the ground immediately surrounding the building exceeds 60 feet in height;

(b) any part of the building projects above any line drawn from the centre of the street in front of the building at an angle of 56° (or if the street is of any one of the types described in Part II of the First Schedule to this Scheme, 45°) with the horizontal:

Provided that—

(i) For the purpose of the foregoing provisions account shall be taken of parapets but not of chimneys, ornamental towers, turrets or any other such architectural features;

(ii) In the case of a building erected at the corner of two or more intersecting streets the height of the building shall be determined by reference to the wider or widest street;

(iii) In the case of a place of assembly the Council may permit either or both of the limits imposed by this Clause to be exceeded to such extent as they may think fit.

(2) No dwelling-house erected in the zone edged dark brown on the Map shall contain more than two storeys, exclusive of any storey constructed wholly or partly in the roof and exclusive of any storey the floor of which is more than six feet below the mean level of the centre of the street in front of the building:

Provided that, if in the case of a group of contiguous dwelling-houses not exceeding six in number it is desired to maintain the height of all the dwelling-houses forming the group at the same level, not more than four of the dwelling-houses may, where the slope of the street in front thereof renders it necessary, contain three storeys, exclusive of any storey constructed wholly or partly in the roof.

Space about Buildings.

Space within Curtilage of Buildings which may be Covered by Buildings.

32.—(1) The proportion of land within the curtilage of any building which may be occupied by buildings shall not exceed the proportion indicated in the Table below, but in the case of an existing building nothing herein shall make the existing occupation of the curtilage by buildings a contravention of the Scheme or prevent the building from being extended so as to occupy a greater proportion of its curtilage than that indicated in the Table, subject, however, where the building is extended, to the subjoined conditions:—

(a) the area of the ground covered by the building as extended shall not exceed the area of the ground covered by the existing building by more than the following percentages:—

A maximum percentage of 25, the percentage to be reduced in the ratio of 1 for every 2 per cent., by which the existing area of the ground covered by the building exceeds one-half of the curtilage of the building;

(b) the proportion of land covered by the extended building shall in no case exceed nine-tenths of the curtilage.

TABLE.

Part I.—Plots laid out for building after 12th February, 1923, or in the case of lands edged yellow on the map, the 23rd February, 1925.

Height of Building	Dwelling-houses	Residential buildings, institutions, schools and shops in which dwelling accommodation is provided	Other buildings
1	2	3	4
Neither exceeding 30 ft. in height nor being, over the main part of the building, of more than one storey above ground level ...	$\frac{1}{3}$	$\frac{1}{2}$	$\frac{3}{4}$
Exceeding 30 ft. in height or being over the main part of the building, of more than one storey above ground level ...	$\frac{1}{4}$	$\frac{1}{2}$	$\frac{2}{3}$

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing provisions of this Clause—

(a) in the case of a dwelling-house which, in the opinion of the Council, is adjacent to the junction of two or more streets, the proportion of land within the curtilage of the dwelling-house which may be occupied by buildings may exceed the proportion indicated in the Table, but shall not exceed one-half;

(b) the Council may permit the proportion of land within the curtilage of any building which may be occupied by buildings to be increased in the case of a building abutting on two or more streets, or where, by reason of any other exceptional circumstances, they think fit so to do.

(3) The provisions of this Clause shall not preclude the erection of a building proposed to be erected by virtue of an exemption granted under Clause 22 (2).

(4) For the purpose of this Clause:—

(a) the height of a building shall be measured from the mean level of the ground surrounding the building to the top of the parapet, or half the height of the roof, whichever is the higher;

(b) where any part of the curtilage of a building, other than land reserved for streets, becomes a street or part of a street, it shall be deemed to continue to form part of the curtilage of the building;

(c) where the curtilage of a building is partly within and partly outside the Area, the curtilage shall be treated as wholly within the Area, but the Council may make it a condition of so treating the curtilage that no buildings are erected on the portion of the curtilage outside the Area, so as to occupy, together with the buildings on the portion of the curtilage within the Area, a greater proportion of the land within the curtilage as a whole than could have been occupied if the whole of the curtilage had been within the Area.

BREAKS IN BUILDINGS.

33.—(1) Not more than four dwelling-houses or residential buildings shall be erected in one continuous block.

(2) (a) A dwelling-house or residential building shall not be erected:—

(i) nearer than eight feet to any other dwelling-house or residential building erected after 12th February, 1923, or, in the case of the lands edged yellow on the Map, 23rd February, 1925;

(ii) nearer than six feet to any building other than a dwelling-house or residential building erected after 12th February, 1923, or, in the case of the lands edged yellow on the Map, 23rd February, 1925;

(iii) nearer than four feet to the owner's boundary;

(b) A building of any type other than a dwelling-house or residential building shall not be erected nearer than six feet to a dwelling-house or residential building erected after 12th February, 1923, or, in the case of the lands edged yellow on the Map, 23rd February, 1925;

Provided that the foregoing requirements with regard to distance from other buildings or from the owner's boundary shall not prevent the erection of a building intended to form part of a continuous block with any other building or buildings, or the erection of a building nearer than four feet to the boundary of the street, where not precluded by a building line fixed in pursuance of Clause 34.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Clause, the Council may, if they think fit, permit—

(a) more than four dwelling-houses or residential buildings to be erected in one continuous block where the buildings are arranged to the satisfaction of the Council;

(b) the erection between two buildings of a connecting wall, arch or other architectural feature approved by the Council;

(c) the erection adjoining a building of an outbuilding not exceeding ten feet in height (measured from the mean level of the ground surrounding the outbuilding to the top of the parapet or half the height of the roof, whichever is the higher);

(d) the erection of a building nearer to any other building or to the owner's boundary than the distance specified in sub-clause (2) of this Clause where it appears to the Council upon representation being made by the owner that on account of exceptional circumstances affecting the development of the site it would be unreasonable to require compliance with that sub-clause.

Building Lines.

34.—(1) Where a building line for any street or proposed street is shown on the Map or, not being shown on the Map, is fixed by the Council under the provisions of this Part of the Scheme, no building or structure, other than boundary walls or fences or temporary structures erected in connection with building operations, or buildings permitted in pursuance of Clause 9 shall, save as hereinafter provided, be erected nearer to the street than the building line.

(2) The Council may fix a building line for any new street not shown on the Map, other than a street of Types G or H described in Part II of the First Schedule to this Scheme, when the plan for such street is submitted to them for approval under Clause 10, or when an order reserving land for a street is made by the Council under Sub-Clause (5) of Clause 6, and any building line so fixed shall be included in the Order for the street under Clause 10, or Clause 6, as the case may be.

FIXING OF BUILDING LINE FOR EXISTING STREET WHERE LINE NOT SHOWN ON MAP.

(3) (a) In the case of a street existing at the date of commencement of this Scheme for which no building line is shown on the Map, the Council may by Order fix a building line either for the street or for such part thereof as they think fit when the plan of a building which is proposed to be erected fronting on the street is submitted to them for approval.

(b) No post, rail, fence, pump or other obstruction of any kind shall be placed, erected, or retained in front of any shop or business or industrial premises in advance of any building line prescribed by or under the powers conferred by this scheme without the consent of the Council.

POWER TO PERMIT BUILDINGS IN ADVANCE OF BUILDING LINE.

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Clause, the Council may, if they think fit, permit—

(a) the projection in front of the building line of any bay window, porch or other projecting portion of a building;

(b) in the case of industrial buildings or buildings for noxious trade or industry, the erection of the building at such distance, not being less than ten feet from the boundary of any street, as the Council may specify;

(c) the erection of groups of shops and business premises at such distance, not being less than ten feet from the boundary of any street, as the Council may specify;

(d) the erection in front of the building line of any building where, by reason of the levels of the site or of any adjoining land, or by reason of any other exceptional circumstances, or for purposes of architectural effect, such permission is, in the opinion of the Council, advisable;

(e) the erection in front of the building line of a lodge or other building to be used in connection with a dwelling-house, provided that the lodge or building shall not exceed two storeys in height and shall not be nearer than ten feet to the boundary of the street.

Before giving permission under paragraph (b), (c) or (d) of this sub-clause, the Council shall, at the expense of the applicant, give notice in writing of the proposal to the owners of the adjoining land and to all other persons who, in the opinion of the Council, may be affected by the giving or withholding of such permission, and shall consider all objections which may be addressed to them in writing by any such persons within a period, not being less than 14 days, to be specified in the notice.

SIGHT LINES.

(5) (1) If at any time the Council are of opinion that, for the purpose of securing the safety of traffic, the height of fences and walls, the growth of hedges, trees and shrubs, and the erection of other obstructions upon any land adjoining any street or the site of any proposed street ought to be regulated, the Council may prescribe a line upon the land, and shall thereupon give notice of the line prescribed to the owner and occupier of the land.

(2) Where a line is prescribed by the Council under this Clause, no wall, fence, hedge, tree or shrub or other obstruction (other than temporary structures erected in connection with building operations) shall be erected or be permitted to grow between that line and the boundary of the street or proposed street so as to cause danger to traffic by obscuring the view.

(3) The Council may from time to time vary any line so prescribed, and shall give notice of the variation to the owner and occupier of the land.

(4) No proceedings in respect of any contravention of this Clause shall be taken until 14 days after notice has been given to the person in default.

APPEALS.

(6) Any owner who feels aggrieved by an Order of the Council fixing a building line in respect of his land in pursuance of sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this Clause, not being an Order made with the approval of the Minister under sub-clause (5) of Clause 6, may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him.

MODIFICATION IN APPLICATION OF PUBLIC HEALTH (BUILDINGS IN STREETS) ACT, 1888.

35.—(1) In any street in which a building line is in operation under this Scheme a person shall not be precluded by Section 3 of the Public Health (Buildings in Streets) Act, 1888, from erecting or bringing forward any house or building to which the building line applies beyond the front main wall of the house or building on either side thereof.

(2) Nothing in this Clause shall authorize the erection or bringing forward of any house or building beyond the building line shown on the Map or fixed by the Council under the provisions of this Part of the Scheme.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS AS TO BUILDINGS AND BUILDING PLOTS PARTLY WITHIN THE AREA OF THE SCHEME AND PARTLY WITHIN THE AREA OF ANOTHER SCHEME.

36. Where any existing or proposed building or building plot is or would be partly within the Area of this Scheme, and partly within the area of any other town-planning scheme, the part of the building or plot within the Area of this Scheme shall, unless the Minister otherwise directs, be treated as subject, as regards any matter to which this Part of the Scheme relates, to the provisions of the Scheme for the Area in which the greater part of the street frontage to the building, or, if there is no street frontage, the greater part of the building itself is or would be situate, or, where the frontage or building, as the case may be, is situate in equal parts in the respective Areas, as subject to the least restrictive of the relevant provisions in the applicable Schemes, as though those provisions were substituted, where necessary, for the corresponding provisions in this Scheme.

37. Nothing in this Part of the Scheme shall affect (1) the erection or use of buildings erected or used for any purpose authorised by any Act of Parliament or Order having the force of an Act of Parliament on land specified for the purpose in the Act or Order; or (2) the erection or use by a local authority of buildings erected or used by them for any purpose approved by the Minister, whether expressly or by way of sanction to a loan or consent to the appropriation of land forming the site of the building from one use to another.

PART IV.—RESERVATION OF LANDS.

RESERVATION AND ACQUISITION OF LANDS.

38.—(1) The uses for which the lands specified in column 1 of the following Table are reserved are indicated in column 2 of the Table. The lands specified in the Table may, until the "appointed day," continue to be used as they are used at the date of the approval of this Scheme or may be used for purposes of agriculture and horticulture or for such other purposes as the Council may permit. Before the "appointed day" such buildings may be erected and maintained upon any of the lands specified in the Table as are necessary for the purposes for which the lands are permitted to be used, subject to such conditions as the Council may impose as to their removal after such date as aforesaid or otherwise.

The "appointed day" for the purposes of this sub-clause means, in the case of lands reserved for use as private open spaces, such date as the Council may in each case fix, not being less than six months after notice thereof has been given to the owner, and, in the case of lands reserved for other uses, the date of the acquisition of the land by the Council, or of the expiration or other determination of any lease to which the land is subject at the date of acquisition, or such later date as the Minister may approve.

(2) Except as aforesaid no part of the lands specified in the Table shall be used for any purpose other than that indicated in the Table as the purpose for which the land is reserved, and no buildings other than those required for that purpose shall be erected thereon.

TABLE.

Column 1 Indication on Map of lands reserved	Column 2 Uses for which lands are reserved
Coloured green and hatched green and numbered 1, 2, 4—7, 9, 10, 13—18, 21—23, 25, 26 & 27.	Public open space.
Coloured green and edged green and numbered 19 & 20.	Private open space.
Coloured light and dark brown and hatched green and numbered 3, 8, 11 & 12.	Allotments.
Coloured light brown and edged red and numbered 24.	Sewage disposal works.

(3) No person shall without the consent of the Council cut down any tree growing on land reserved for a public open space under this Clause except where the tree has become dangerous or impedes the use of the land for any purpose for which it is permitted to be used under this Clause, and no person shall spoil or waste land required for any purpose under this Clause so as to destroy or impair its use for the purpose for which it is reserved.

(4) (a) The purposes of this Scheme shall include the provision by the Council of public open spaces and playing fields upon lands reserved for those purposes respectively;

(b) The Council may at any time acquire by agreement and, if they think fit, convert into a public open space or a playing field any of the lands reserved as private open spaces and numbered 19 and 20 on the Map.

(5) The Council shall have like powers in regard to any lands reserved as public or private open spaces or playing fields, when acquired by the Council, as if the same were acquired for the purposes of public walks, parks and pleasure grounds or playing fields under the Public Health Acts or any enactments amending those Acts.

For the purposes of this Clause land reserved for use as a private open space means land reserved for use as a private ground for sports, play, rest or recreation, or as an ornamental garden or pleasure ground, or as meadow or pasture land, orchards, woodlands, osier lands, or nursery grounds, but does not include a sports or recreation ground customarily open to the public on payment of a charge, or market gardens, allotments, or land used wholly or principally for the purpose of cultivation under glass.

LANDS NO LONGER REQUIRED FOR THE PURPOSES FOR WHICH THEY ARE RESERVED.

39. If at any time any land reserved for any purpose under this Part of the Scheme is not required or likely to be required for that purpose, the Council may make an Order with the approval of the Minister declaring the land no longer to be so reserved, and thereafter the provisions of this Part of the Scheme shall not apply to the land but the land shall be subject to the remaining provisions of this Scheme as if it were included in such zone or zones as may be specified in the Order.

Saving for Lands of Local Authorities and Statutory Companies, etc.

40. Nothing in this Part of the Scheme shall affect the site of any ancient monument or other object of archæological interest, nor, except in so far as may be agreed between the Council and the local authority or any persons interested in the land, any land which was before the 12th February, 1923, or, in the case of the land edged yellow on the Map, the 23rd February, 1925, the property of any local authority so long as it remains their property, or any land which was before such dates held or used for any of the purposes referred to in paragraph 2 of Part II of the Third Schedule to the Act, so long as the land continues to be held or used for those purposes.

PART V.—GENERAL AMENITY.

Elevations of Buildings.

41.—(1) Any person intending to erect a building in any existing or proposed street within Zones A, B and C shall furnish the Council (in addition to any plans and particulars required to be submitted under the Byelaws and Local Acts) with drawings of the elevations of the building, together with a specification or other sufficient indication of the materials to be used in those parts of the building which are comprised in the elevations.

The drawing shall be upon suitable and durable material to a scale of not less than one inch to every eight feet, except that, where the building is so extensive as to render a smaller scale necessary, it shall suffice if the elevations are drawn to a scale of not less than one inch to every sixteen feet.

(2) For the purpose of assisting the Council in the exercise of the power of approving or disapproving elevations hereinafter conferred, a standing Advisory Committee of three members (in this Clause called "The Advisory Committee") shall be constituted for the Area, of whom one member shall be a Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects, to be nominated by the President of the said Institute, one member shall be a Fellow of the Surveyors' Institution, to be nominated by the President of the said Institution, and one member shall be a Justice of the Peace, to be nominated by the Council;

Provided that a member of the Council shall be disqualified from being a member of the Advisory Committee.

(3) Subject as aforesaid the members of the Advisory Committee shall be appointed by the Council, and any vacancy occurring on the Advisory Committee shall be filled by the Council on the nomination of the person or body by whom the member causing the vacancy was nominated. The Council may pay the members of the Advisory Committee such reasonable fees and expenses as the Council think fit.

(4) The Council shall, within one month after the submission to them of any elevation—

(a) approve the elevations; or

(b) if they consider that, having regard to the general character of the existing buildings in the street or of the buildings proposed therein to be erected, the building to which the elevations relate would seriously disfigure the street, whether by reason of the height of the building (notwithstanding that the height conforms with the requirements of Clause 31) or the design of the building, or the materials proposed to be used in its construction, refer the question of the approval of the elevations to the Advisory Committee for their decision thereon, and the reference shall be accompanied by a statement of the grounds on which the proposed building is considered to be objectionable.

(5) The Council shall forthwith send notice in writing to the person by whom the elevations were submitted of their approval thereof, or, if the building is considered to be objectionable on any of the grounds mentioned in this Clause, of the reference of the elevations to the Advisory Committee, and the notice shall be accompanied by a statement of the objections to the building.

(6) (a) The person by whom the elevations were submitted shall, within fourteen days of his receiving notice of the reference to the Advisory Committee, be entitled to send to the Advisory Committee a statement of his answers to the objections of the Council, and, if he does so, he shall at the same time send a copy thereof to the Clerk to the Council.

(b) The Advisory Committee shall, within one month after the receipt of the reference, decide whether, having regard to the considerations mentioned in paragraph (4) (b) of this Clause, they approve or disapprove the elevations, and their decision shall be final and conclusive. The Advisory Committee shall not, however, disapprove the elevations on any other grounds than those specified in the Council's statement of objections hereinbefore referred to without first giving not less than 10 days' notice of their intention to the person submitting the elevations and the Council, and hearing any representations which either party may make to them before the expiration of the notice.

Subject as aforesaid, the Advisory Committee, in arriving at their decision, may adopt such procedure as they think fit, and, if the elevations are disapproved, the decision of the Advisory Committee shall contain a statement of the grounds on which the proposed building is considered to be objectionable.

(7) The decision of the Advisory Committee shall be in writing signed by them, and a copy of the decision shall, as soon as may be after the determination of the reference, be sent to the Council and to the person by whom the elevations were submitted.

(8) In the event of a division of opinion among the members of the Advisory Committee upon reference to them, the matter shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members of the Committee, but, save as aforesaid, the Advisory Committee shall act by their whole number.

(9) (a) No building shall be erected the elevations of which have been disapproved under this Clause.

(b) No building shall be erected in any existing or proposed street in Zones A, B and C the elevations of which have not been approved under this clause, except where the Council or the Advisory Committee, as the case may be, have not given a decision under sub-clauses (4) and (6) within the periods fixed therein for the purpose.

(10) The costs of any reference to the Advisory Committee shall be paid as the Advisory Committee may direct. Where such costs or part thereof are payable by the person submitting the elevations, they shall be recoverable by the Council, summarily as a civil debt, and where such costs or part thereof are payable by the Council, they shall be recoverable by the person submitting the elevations in the like manner.

(11) The provisions of this Clause shall not apply to any building exempt from the operation of the Byelaws with respect to new streets and buildings made by the Council on the 28th

November, 1927, and confirmed by the Minister on the 12th January, 1928, under paragraph 2 of Byelaws thereof, so long as those buildings continue to be exempt from those Byelaws or any Byelaws of a like kind which may be substituted therefor.

PRESERVATION OF TREES.

42.—(1) If at any time the Council, having regard to the amenity of any part of the Area, are of opinion that any growing tree of a height of more than 25 feet or having a trunk of a girth of more than 2 feet 6 inches at a height of 5 feet above the ground, or any group of such trees, ought to be preserved, the Council may register the tree or group of trees, and shall thereupon notify the owner and occupier of the land upon which the tree or group of trees is growing that the tree or group of trees has been registered, and the register of trees so made shall be open to inspection by persons interested at all reasonable times.

(2) No person shall cut down or wilfully destroy any tree registered by the Council under this Clause, except with the consent of the Council or upon an Order of a Court of Summary Jurisdiction under sub-clause (3) of this Clause or where the tree has become dangerous:

Provided that if the Council do not notify their refusal to consent to the cutting down or destruction of any registered tree within one month from the date of an application for consent their consent shall be deemed to have been given.

(3) Any owner or occupier who feels aggrieved by a refusal of the Council to consent to the cutting down or destruction of any registered tree may appeal to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction, and the Court may, if they think just, make an Order authorizing the cutting down or destruction of the tree, but such Order shall not affect any rights as between the owner and occupier.

(4) The Council may delegate their powers under this Clause, with or without restriction, to any Committee of the Council.

DISPLAY OF ADVERTISEMENTS. MAINTENANCE OF PRIVATE GARDENS AND PRIVATE OPEN SPACES.

43.—(1) The Council may serve a notice, in respect of any of the matters specified in sub-clause (2) of this Clause, on the person by whose action or omission the injury referred to in the sub-clause arises (including the owner of unoccupied premises) requiring him, within a reasonable time to be specified in the notice, to take such action and to execute such works, including works of removal, as may be necessary to abate the injury.

(2) A notice may be served under this Clause if the amenity of Zones 1 and 2 or of any public or private open space in the Area is seriously injured by—

(a) the display of any advertisement in the Area; or (b) the condition of any garden, curtilage, or private open space in the Area.

(3) If the person on whom the notice is served fails to comply with the notice, the Council may cause a complaint relating to the injury to be made to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction, and that Court may issue a summons requiring the person to appear before them, and, if satisfied that the alleged injury exists, may make an Order requiring the person to comply with the requisition or otherwise to abate the injury and to do any works necessary for the purpose within a time specified in the Order. Failure to comply with such an order shall be a contravention of this Scheme.

The Order may also empower the Council themselves to undertake the necessary works and to recover the cost from the person on whom the Order is made, if the person fails to comply with the Order.

(4) (a) Any person may apply to the Council for their consent to the display of an advertisement in the Area, and consent shall be deemed to have been given if the Council do not notify their refusal to consent within one month from the date of the receipt of the application;

(b) Where, on any such application, the Council refuse their consent, the applicant may, within 21 days from the date of notification of refusal, appeal to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction, and the Court may, if they think just, make an Order permitting the display of the advertisement to which the application relates;

(c) The Council may, if they think fit, authorize generally the display of particular classes of advertisement in the Area, with or without specifying the positions or manner in which they may be displayed;

(d) The display of an advertisement in accordance with any consent or general authority of the Council or any Order of the Court under this sub-clause shall not be deemed to be an injury of amenity within the meaning of this Clause.

(e) The Council may delegate their powers under this sub-clause, with or without restriction, to any Committee of the Council.

(5) The provisions of this Clause as to advertisements shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of the Advertisements Regulation Acts, 1907 and 1925.

(6) For the purposes of this Clause "private open space" means land so reserved under Clause 38, and the display of an advertisement includes the erection of a hoarding or other structure or apparatus for the purposes of advertising.

(7) Nothing in this Clause shall prevent the display of the following advertisements:—

(a) advertisements upon land relating solely to any trade or business carried on, or to any entertainment or meeting, auction or sale to be held upon or in relation to such land or any property thereon; and advertisements on the door or in the window of a building; if the advertisements do not in either case contain letters, figures or advertising emblems exceeding six inches in height, and do not (except where affixed to and not projecting above a vertical wall of a building) exceed a height of twelve feet from the ground;

(b) for a period of five years from the date of the approval of this scheme, hoardings or similar structures erected or in use for advertising purposes prior to that date and any advertisements displayed thereon during that period, or any other advertisement displayed at the date of the approval of this scheme.

(8) The erection of any new building or the conversion of any existing building in any zone for the purpose of the sale or distribution of petrol shall be subject to the consent of the Council, who may impose such conditions as they think fit.

(9) The Council shall not exercise their powers under this Part of the Scheme, other than their powers under sub-clause (2) of Clause 42, and sub-clause (4) of Clause 43 with reference to land belonging to any other local authority, except with the concurrence of the Minister.

PART VI.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Agreements.

44.—(1) The Council may enter into agreements for the purpose of carrying this Scheme into effect, and where any such agreement imposes on the Council a liability for expenditure, the agreement shall state whether or not the Council propose to defray such expenditure or any part thereof by means of a loan.

Where it is stated in the agreement that the Council so propose, the agreement shall not become operative unless and until it is approved by the Minister.

(2) The several agreements of which particulars are set out in the Fourth Schedule to this Scheme shall be deemed to have been made by the Council under the powers conferred on them by this Clause, and notwithstanding any inconsistency between any of the provisions of any such agreement and this scheme the provisions of the agreement shall prevail.

Any other agreements made by the Council after 12th February, 1923, or, in the case of the lands edged yellow on the Map, 23rd February, 1925, and before the date of approval of this Scheme in respect of any matter regarding which agreements may be made under this Clause shall, so far as they are consistent with the provisions of this Scheme, have effect as if they had been made by the Council under the powers conferred on them by this Clause.

(3) A person having the powers of a tenant for life within the meaning of the Settled Lands Act, 1925, may, with the consent of the persons who are trustees of the settlement for the purposes of that Act or on an Order of the Court, enter into any agreement which the Council have power under this Clause to make, but nothing in this Clause shall prejudice or affect the exercise by any such person of any powers, whether statutory or other, which he could have exercised apart from this Clause.

(4) The Council shall have power to enforce any covenant contained in agreements of the kinds referred to in this Clause against persons deriving title under the covenantor, notwithstanding that the Council are not in possession of or interested in any land for the benefit of which the covenant was entered into, in the same manner and to the same extent as if they had from the date on which the covenant was entered into been possessed of or interested in such land.

Adjustment of Boundaries of Estates.

45.—(1) For the purpose of securing such adjustment of the boundaries of estates and building plots as will facilitate the proper laying out of streets and development of land within the Area, the Council may agree with the persons interested in lands for the exchange between those persons of portions of the lands either with or without payment of money by way of equality of exchange, and may, if they think fit, themselves pay in whole or in part any money required to be paid by way of equality of exchange, and may pay in whole or in part the costs of the exchange.

(2) In default of agreement the Council may by Order provide that the lands shall be exchanged on such terms as may be specified in the Order, but before making the Order the Council shall send to each of the persons concerned a draft of the proposed Order, and any such person shall be entitled within 14 days after the said draft is sent to him to require the matter to be submitted to the arbitration of a single arbitrator to be agreed between the Council and the persons concerned, or, in default of agreement, to be appointed by the Minister.

(3) The arbitrator so appointed shall have power to modify the boundaries of the lands proposed to be exchanged and otherwise to fix the terms upon which the exchange is to be effected, including the payment of money by the Council, but the payment of money by any person concerned other than the Council shall not be made a term of the award without his consent. The provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1889, shall apply to an arbitration held under this Clause, and the Council and the persons concerned shall be treated as parties to the arbitration.

If the Council decide not to proceed, they shall, notwithstanding any direction in the award to the contrary, pay the costs of the persons concerned of and in connection with the arbitration, and the arbitrator shall have power to tax or settle the amount of the costs to be so paid.

(5) The Order of the Council to effect the exchange of lands under this Clause shall be made by an instrument executed in three parts, one part whereof shall be delivered duly stamped to each of the persons concerned. The Order shall have the like effect as an Order of Exchange of lands duly made by the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries under Section 147 of the Inclosure Act, 1845.

(6) Nothing in this Clause shall enable the Council to make (a) an Order affecting any land to which paragraphs 1 and 2 of Part II of the Third Schedule to the Act apply, or (b) an Order the terms of which provide for the payment by way of equality of exchange of a sum exceeding one-eighth of the value of the less valuable piece of land.

(7) For the purpose of securing an adjustment of the boundaries of estates and building plots as aforesaid, the Council may themselves purchase, subject to the provisions of Section 8 of the Act, any land, and may for that purpose sell or lease the land so purchased in whole or in part.

MODIFICATIONS IN DETAIL OF SCHEME.

46.—(1) The Council shall have power from time to time by Order to make any minor modification in the site of any proposed street coloured pink on the Map (and any consequential modification of a building line) or in the boundary of any zone or of any area reserved for any purpose under Part IV. of this Scheme.

(2) Any person who feels aggrieved by an Order of the Council under this Clause may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him.

(3) A copy of any Order made by the Council under this Clause shall be furnished to the Minister as soon as practicable.

RETROSPECTIVE EFFECT OF SCHEME.

47. The provisions of this Scheme (other than the provisions of Clause 20 requiring dwelling-houses and residential buildings to be erected on land units) shall apply to all buildings whose erection is commenced after 12th February, 1923, or, in the case of the lands edged yellow on the Map, 23rd February, 1925, and to any other work done by any person other than the Council after that date, as if that date had been the date of approval of this Scheme.

EFFECT OF SCHEME UPON ORDERS UNDER SECTION 4 OF THE ACT.

48. Where in pursuance of any special or general Order made by the Minister under Section 4 of the Act or any corresponding provision of any Act repealed thereby the development of any estate or any building operation has been permitted to proceed, no building, street or other work whose erection, lay out or construction is commenced before the date of approval of this Scheme or under a contract entered into before that date in pursuance of such permission and in accordance with any requirements made as a condition of granting such permission, shall be deemed to contravene the provisions of this Scheme, and, where permission has been granted for the user of land or buildings in pursuance of an Order as aforesaid, conditionally or unconditionally, nothing in this Scheme shall operate to prevent the continued use of the land or buildings in accordance with the permission.

Fulfilment of Conditions.

49. Where permission for the erection, laying out or construction of any street or building, or in respect of any other matter, is given subject to conditions imposed by the Council or the Minister on appeal or agreed between the Council and the owner under any provision of this Scheme, or where conditions have been similarly imposed or agreed in connection with the erection, laying out, or construction of any street, building, or other work, or the user of any land or buildings, to which Clause 48 applies, and the last-mentioned conditions are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Scheme, the conditions shall have effect as if they were provisions of this Scheme:

Provided that any such condition may be waived or modified with the consent of the owner of the land to which they relate in the manner, and in accordance with the requirements as to advertisement, notices, consideration of objections, and otherwise, applicable to the imposition of the conditions or any corresponding conditions under the Scheme.

Disposal of Lands.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Clause, no land forming part of any common, open space, or allotment within the meaning of paragraph 3 of Part II of the Third Schedule to the Act shall be appropriated to any other purpose except where land, not being less in area, certified by the Minister after consultation with the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries to be equally advantageous to the persons, if any, entitled to commonable or other rights and to the public, is given in exchange;

(b) Any land forming part of any common, open space or allotment as aforesaid appropriated under this Clause shall, by virtue of the appropriation, be discharged from any rights, trusts and incidents to which it was previously subject, and any land given in exchange shall be held subject to the same rights, trusts and incidents as attached to the land appropriated.

(2) At the expiration of one month from the date of the notice the Council may exercise their powers under paragraph (a) or (b) aforesaid, as the case may be, but, where they have previously been notified by the person served with the notice or by the Minister that a question whether any building or work specified in the notice contravenes the Scheme has been referred to the Minister for decision under sub-section (3) of the said Section, the Council shall suspend further action pending the decision of the Minister.

(3) When on any question referred to the Minister under sub-section (3) of the said Section it is determined that any building or work contravenes this Scheme, or that any provision of this Scheme has not been complied with in the erection or carrying out of any building or other work, the Council, after giving such person as aforesaid notice that, at the expiration of a period specified in the notice (not being less than one month from the date of service of the notice), they intend to exercise their powers under paragraph (a) aforesaid, may proceed to remove, pull down, or alter the building or work.

(2) Where the value of land is increased by the making of this Scheme, the sum due to the Council in respect of that increase shall, until payment, be a charge on the inheritance of the land the value of which has been increased.

(3) The Council shall have in respect of expenses which are charged on land by this Clause all the same powers and remedies under the Law of Property Act, 1925, and otherwise as if they were mortgagees under a mortgage made by deed.

Application of Moneys Received by Council.

57.—(1) All amounts recovered by the Council under Section 10 of the Act in respect of the increase in value of property or received from the sale of surplus lands, and all other money, being capital or in the nature of capital, received from any other source in connection with this Scheme, shall be applied, where possible, in defraying the cost of carrying out any works in respect of which they are received under this Scheme, or in repayment of moneys borrowed under the Act for purposes of this Scheme, or to such other purposes as may be approved by the Minister.

(2) An application of money under this Clause in repayment of moneys borrowed by the Council shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other mode of extinguishment provided under the Act, except to such extent and upon such terms as may be approved by the Minister, and, where money is applied in defraying the cost of carrying out any works under this Clause, any borrowing powers of the Council for the purpose shall be reduced to that extent.

Suspension and Application of Acts and Byelaws.

58.—(1) Any byelaws made by the Council with respect to new streets which are in force in the Area shall cease to have effect in the Area; but any application or plans or sections submitted to the Council under the byelaws in respect of which permission to proceed has not been granted or refused in pursuance of any special or general Order made by the Minister under Section 4 of the Act, or any corresponding provision of any Act repealed thereby, shall be deemed to have been submitted under this Scheme.

(2) The provisions of any other byelaws or of any statutory enactment or regulations which are in force shall have effect subject to this Scheme as regards matters dealt with in the Scheme, and, in so far as inconsistent with the provisions of the Scheme, shall be suspended:

Provided that nothing in Part III of the Scheme shall authorise the Council to permit the erection of a building in a manner contravening the byelaws and local Acts or the provisions of any general Act.

(i) if the application is for leave to appeal against any Order, decision refusal, specification or declaration of the Council, or against the imposition of any conditions by the Council, it shall be made within 14 days from the date of service of notice thereof;

(ii) if the application is for leave to appeal against any neglect of the Council, it shall not be made until one month after notice of intention to apply for leave to appeal has been given to the Council.

(4) The Minister may on any appeal make such Order in the matter as he thinks equitable and any Order so made shall be binding and conclusive on all parties.

(5) Where the Minister does not for the purpose of determining an appeal appoint an arbitrator to act for him in pursuance of his powers under Section 30 of the Regulation of Railways Act, 1868, as applied by Section 17 of the Act, the costs of the appeal, including the costs of any local inquiry held in connection therewith, shall be in the discretion of the Minister, who may direct to and by whom and in what manner those costs or any part thereof shall be paid and may tax or settle the amount of costs to be so paid or any part thereof. Any Order made by the Minister as to such costs may be made a rule of one of the superior Courts of Law.

For the purposes of this sub-clause the determination by the Minister of any measurement under the definition of the erection of a building in Clause 1 shall be regarded as the determination of an appeal.

COSTS IN APPEALS OR APPLICATIONS TO COURTS OF SUMMARY JURISDICTION.

60. Where an application or appeal may be made to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction under this Scheme, the Court may order by whom and in what manner any costs incurred in connection with the application or appeal shall be paid, and any costs so ordered to be paid shall be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.

The specified period shall not be less than 14 days or more than one month in the case of Orders under Clauses 34 (3), 39 and 46, and not less than one month or more than six weeks in other cases.

This sub-clause shall not apply to Orders to which Clause 12 applies.

(3) Where the Order (whether relating to specified land or not) requires the approval of the Minister, or an appeal may be made against the Order by any person other than the applicant for the Order or any owner notified under the preceding sub-clause, the Council shall give notice of the proposal to make the Order by advertisement in a local newspaper circulating in the area. The advertisement shall be in the same terms as the notice under the preceding sub-clause, with the substitution of the words "any interested person," for "the owner."

(4) Before making the Order, the Council shall consider any representations or objections made to them within the prescribed period.

5. Where the Order requires the approval of the Minister:—

(a) the Minister may require notices to be served on any additional owners who may in his opinion be affected by the Order;

(b) the Order may include any necessary modifications in the application of this Scheme to the land or any neighbouring land to which the Order relates;

(c) the Minister may approve the Order with or without modifications or may disapprove it, provided that before approving any Order made in pursuance of Clause 30 the Minister shall be satisfied that the provisions of the Order are reasonable having regard to the nature and situation of the land affected by the Order.

(6) A copy of the Order when duly made and, where necessary, approved by the Minister, shall, where the Order relates to specified land, be served by the Council on the owner of the land, and the Council shall also notify any other owner to whom notice of the proposal to make the Order was sent that a copy of the Order as made or approved may be inspected at a specified place or places.

Where the Order, whether relating to specified land or not, is one approved by the Minister, the Council shall also give notice of the approval by advertisement in similar terms in a local newspaper circulating in the Area.

(8) The Order shall have effect as if it were incorporated in and formed part of this Scheme and shall be deposited with this Scheme at the office of the Clerk to the Council.

(9) The Order may be varied or revoked in the manner and in accordance with the requirements as to advertisement, notices, consideration of objections, and otherwise, applicable to the making of the Order, but in the case of an Order not requiring the approval of the Minister, only with the consent of the owner of the land to which it relates, or, failing such consent, with the authority of the Minister.

(2) The annuity charged shall be such annual sum as will repay the said amount by equal instalments of principal and interest combined in a period of 30 years, interest being calculated at the same rate as that which, at the date when the charge is made, is the rate of interest charged on loans granted by the
