Superb crafts of the Suburb

HAMPSTEAD Garden Suburb has always been a centre of art and culture, a tradition clearly demonstrated at Church Farm Museum, Greyhound Hill, Hendon, where an exhibition of Suburb Crafts will be on show until November 7. The organisers are Hampstead Garden Suburb Crafts Group, whose members are all skilled craftsmen. The exhibition includes needlework such as patchwork, appliqué and smocking, toy making, modelling, silver and metal work, spinning and card designs. On Saturday afternoons, there will be demonstrations of selected crafts. Contact Sue Pearl, 40 Temple Fortune Hill, NW11, or Veronica Shaw, 5 Ruskin Close, NW11, for details of the group.

Barnet Civic News is a monthly magazine carrying news of Council activities and local voluntary organisations. Civic News is distributed door-to-door throughout the borough, reaching more than 109,000 homes and businesses and further copies are sent to libraries and council offices. It is produced at no additional cost to the ratepayer, all costs being covered by advertising.

Editorial pages are edited jointly by Bill White, the Council's Press and Information Officer, and Rosemary Jude, Press Officer. Copyright of editorial matter, Barnet Council.

For the benefit of advertisers who do not require borough-wide distribution Civic News is now in two editions: A, Barnet and Finchley areas; B, Hendon and Edgware. Each represents a circulation of 55,000 approx. Editorial pages are the same throughout.

18½-MILE WALK

CUBS from the 11th Golders Green Scout Group checking the route in Barnet's countryside in preparation for their 18½-mile sponsored walk on Sunday, October 17, in aid of the Mayor of Barnet's Appeal Fund and their own group funds.

In our picture, taken at Totteridge, are Daniel Bell, Daniel Bentsur, Jeremy Collins, Ashley Herman, Daniel Kushner, Marc Lewis, Hagai Segal and Raphael Rose.

Parents have also been asked to take up the challenge and walk with their sons through Barnet's open spaces.

The amount raised will be announced in Civic News and the Appeal Committee have issued a challenge to other Scout Groups to organise their own sponsored walk and beat that total to help swell the Mayor's Appeal Fund and also help their own funds.

Mayor's Treasure Chest

THE PEOPLE of Barnet are walking, singing, swimming, slimming, and cheering in aid of the Mayor of Barnet's new-style Charity Treasure Chest Appeal which will be used to help local charities and groups of all descriptions. Nearly £2,000 is already in the kitty and many local charities have joined in the scheme.

When Councillor Vic Usher became Mayor of Barnet in May he announced that instead of choosing one single charity for his Mayoral Appeal he would like to open a Charity Treasure Chest. Funds would be raised in the traditional way through a series of special events, but also local charities and community groups would join in, raising money for the general appeal and benefiting from the fund.

'I don't want to divert money away from local charities because we are all working for one project,' the Mayor explained. 'I feel that I am Mayor for the whole Borough and I would like to see many worthwhile local causes getting help from the appeal.'

'I hope local charities will write in, putting forward their ideas, and that many will organise a fund-raising event for the Appeal. Through their contribution they will be among the organisations to benefit from the overall fund. Other charities may not have the resources to contribute but they may still be able to benefit.'

The great advantage of this community idea is that it is so flexible. Everyone can take part from the smallest club to the largest charity.

For instance, the Barnet Club for the Blind has asked if it can have help to purchase a record player as they recently lost their pianist who had entertained the club for many years.

The Mayor himself has a special interest in the work of the group carrying out research and family support for the victims of Huntington's Chorea, so this is one of the charities in the chest.

Save the Children Fund, John Grooms, the Scouts, the Boys' Brigade and the Army Benevolent Fund are among the local groups who have asked to participate in the Appeal.

The programme is already taking shape.

On September 19 Mr. P. Shah of Deansbrook Pharmacy, Deansbrook Road, Burnt Oak, organised the first sponsored walk, with 25 walkers tackling 10 miles.

On October 14 Inglis Barracks is the venue for a Charity Boxing Night with an Ascot-style buffet supper. The buffet is at 6.30 pm with the Boxing at 8.30 pm. Tickets £10 from the Chairman of the Appeal Committee, Mr. Maurice Abbey, 6 Totnes Walk, N2. Finchley Amateur Boxing Club have arranged a first-class programme for the evening.

On October 17 the 11th Golders Green Cub Scouts set off on a sponsored walk through Barnet's countryside from Hampstead Heath to Hadley Common and back through Totteridge Common.

On October 31 there's a Bucks Fizz lunch at RAF Hendon.

October is slimming month for the Mayor's Chaplain, Father Desmond Sheenan and the editors of Civic News, who are undergoing a sponsored slim for the Appeal.

The school children of the Borough are making tremendous efforts to raise money for the fund.

On December 10 at Grahame Park School there will be a Gang Show with several schools taking part and on March 24 next year the traditional sponsored swim will be held. Organiser Gerald Kirby has written to all the schools in the Borough reminding them that the Mayor will present trophies to the schools making the greatest contribution and that they can enter their own charitable projects for consideration by the fund. Contact Gerald at 29 Benedict Way, East Finchley, N2.

On the Saturday before Christmas, Hendon Band will play at Brent Cross Shopping Centre with a collection for the Mayor's Appeal.

And over the coming months there will be a Nearly New Shop, a Grand Draw, a Celebrity Concert, and a Mayoral dinner and ball at a West End hotel next spring. The Terenure Country Club in Totteridge have also organised several events.

The Local Press and Civic News will publish details of the coming events as dates are confirmed. 'I hope everyone will join in, work hard to raise funds but also enjoy themselves. This should be a real community effort,' Maurice Abbey said.

Donations to the Appeal should be sent to The Mayor of Barnet's Appeal, The Mayor's Parlour, Town Hall, Hendon, NW4 4BG.

Exciting plans for Copthall complex

EXCITING PLANS for Copthall Sports complex which include an indoor stadium and squash courts have been included in a planning brief which is now being studied by the Development and Estates Committee of Barnet Council and organisations such as the Greater London and South East Council for Sport and Recreation and the local Barnet Council for Sport and Recreation.

At this stage it is only a plan. To turn it into reality the Council would probably be looking for outside finance and, of course, every stage of any future development at Copthall would need full planning permission.

Copthall is one of the Borough's most valuable amenities with 138 acres of public open space and playing fields lying between Hendon and Mill Hill. The swimming complex includes three indoor pools, one to national short course competition standard. The stadium offers first class athletics facilities and attracts major events.

Protection

The planning brief sets out to protect the playing fields and open space character of Copthall but at the same time to provide much needed sports facilities for North London by developing the area between the pools and the stadium as an indoor stadium, its central reserve providing the type of sports facility found in a sports hall — such as a five-a-side football pitch, badminton courts or gymnastics mats.

The height and scale of the building would be restricted so that rather than a national sports centre the new complex would be designed to serve the borough and its surrounding local authorities.

The squash courts are shown as linked to the swimming pools so that there would be communication between the buildings and facilities for the public could be designed to serve the whole centre when necessary.

This plan would ensure that all the outdoor sports pitches would be left intact with one exception — a small five-a-side all weather pitch.

Copthall at present provides the borough with seven football pitches, three cricket, eight rugby and one all weather hockey pitch as well as a fitness training circuit.

The regional Council for Sport and Recreation has already recommended that Barnet's indoor sports requirements should be met by the provision of a major indoor centre at ABOVE: Copthall Stadium which offers first-class athletics facilities and attracts major events.

BELOW: Hockey being played upon a part of the 138 acres of playing fields and public open space lying between Hendon and Mill Hill which also houses the swimming complex with its three pools, one to national short course competition standard.

Copthall with a more modest indoor centre in the south-east of the borough — for example on the Glebe land, Finchley.

At one time Copthall was shortlisted as the possible site of a national indoor sports arena but a development on that scale was opposed by Barnet Council because of the impact such a centre would have had on the amenities of the site. For instance many of the sports pitches would have been sacrificed for car parking.

The Brief provides for a scheme on a much more modest scale and would provide limited car parking space in the vicinity of the new buildings but the main car park would continue to be where it is now — the former allotment land which opens off the stadium car park.

However, the Brief does have wide ranging implications.

Because it is Green Belt land the proposals would have to go to both the Greater London Council and the Secretary of State for the Environment.

Any provision of sports facilities involving spectator provision will entail an improved access from the Great North Way, the A1 trunk road, so that will have to go to the Department of Transport.

And before any decisions were made local residents in the immediate area would be consulted and the local and regional sports councils would be consulted.

Another problem that Copthall presents is that of public transport. While it is easy to reach by car there is very limited public transport, the nearest bus route running down Pursley Road and the nearest Underground station being at Mill Hill East. So any improvement in facilities would mean talks with London Transport to see if at least a shuttle service could be provided when major sports programmes were taking place at the Stadium.

So the Copthall Planning Brief which has been approved by the Town Planning and Research Committee and the Development and Estates Committee on October 4, is still a concept for the future.

Flats for sale (from £25,500)

TEN NEW one-bedroom flats in St Albans Road, Barnet, are being built by Barnet Council for sale to single people and married and engaged couples on the Council's Housing Waiting List and to existing Council tenants.

The flats, which will sell at about £25,500 and £25,950, are built in pleasant two-storey blocks in a landscaped setting. Each flat has its own street-level front door and an individual parking place. The entrance halls lead into a living room 15ft by 9ft 8in. off which is the well-fitted kitchen with facilities for either gas or electric cooking.

The market value of the flats was assessed at £26,250 and £26,750 for two garden flats, so eligible purchasers have a discount of about £800.

This build for sale scheme is in line with Barnet Council's policy of encouraging young people to own their own home in the borough instead of having to move to cheaper housing areas. The flats are available to existing Council tenants and people on the Housing Waiting List.

As the Council does not have funds for granting mortgages on these properties, generous support through a £150,000 quota has been made available by the Abbey National Building Society.

As individual circumstances differ so much no definite information can be given in this article but 95 per cent mortgages would probably be available.

A young couple earning £7,000 and £5,000 respectively might obtain a mortgage of £23,750 and would need a deposit of £1,700. Their monthly repayments over 25 years at present rates would be £252.50 but against that can be set £51.98 a month tax relief based on current Government proposals. A single income of £9,500 would be needed to support a similar mortgage.

If there are more eligible purchasers than available properties the Chairman of the Housing Committee will allocate by ballot.

If you are interested in purchasing one of these flats in St Albans Road and think you are eligible, contact the Sales Team at Barnet Council's Housing Department, Stag House, Burnt Oak Broadway. Tel: 952 8911. It is a good idea to get your mortgage agreed in principle at an early stage. The Sales Team can help you contact the Abbey National Building Society but you may prefer to contact your own building society or source of finance.

COMMUNITY HEALTH

BEFORE the reorganisation of the National Health Service in April this year, Barnet was divided into two health districts, Barnet/Finchley and Edgware/Hendon with matching Community Health Councils.

Barnet Health Authority is now a single health district and, in line with Government policy, the existing Barnet/Finchley and Edgware/Hendon Community Health Councils were disbanded on September 1 and a new Barnet Community Health Council set up.

At the inaugural meeting of the new CHC, Mr Henry Klokow was elected chairman and Mrs Mary Steinberger as vice chairman.

Until further notice contact:

BADMINTON THREE-DAY EVENT

A BADMINTON Tournament for Barnet youngsters is being staged by the Borough Education Department's Youth and Community Service at the Queen Elizabeth's Centre, Meadway, Barnet, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 26, 27 and 28.

The finals will be held on the Sunday from 2-6 pm.

There are three age groups — Under 14, Under 16 and Under 18. In each group there will be ladies' and men's singles, ladies' and men's doubles and mixed doubles.

In all three events competitors must be under 14, 16 or 18 at midnight on October 1/2, 1982, and can only enter for the event in the age range for which they are eligible.

All competitors must be a resident of or a member of an organisation in the Borough of Barnet.

All entries must reach Mr. E. Finestone, District Leader, Town Hall, Friern Barnet, N11 3DL (tel: 368 1255) by Friday, October 22, and entry forms and rules of the tournament can be obtained by writing to that address.

Take a tip from the Police

- 'They'll get in anyway . . .'
- 'It won't happen to me . . .'
- 'I've nothing worth stealing'

These phrases, often used by the public, test the patience of Metropolitan Police Officers.

To fight this complacency 'S' District Metropolitan Police, the district which covers the Borough of Barnet and Herts-mere are running an anti-burglary campaign.

Householders often ask for trouble by 'hiding' the door-key under the mat or on a string behind the letter-box; leaving ladders laying invitingly near vulnerable windows; loudly announcing in a pub that they're going on holiday; or forgetting to cancel the newspapers and the milk.

A home is broken into every three minutes, so instead of helping the casual thief take a tip from the police:

- Don't leave your empty garage with the door open.
- Don't leave the curtains and blinds drawn in the day-time.
- Secure your windows and lock all external doors.
- Remember that the back of the house is as vulnerable as the front.
- Ask a neighbour to keep an eye on the house and report anything suspicious to the police.

- Don't leave a window open a few inches so that the cat can get in.
- Check the identity of all callers before you let them in.
- Make sure the inside latch of your front door can't be opened through the letter-box.
- Keep a note of all valuable items like TV sets or cameras. The police stand a better chance of recovering them if they have full particulars.

Thieves on the lookout for easy pickings are soon discouraged by houses they can't get into quickly. So, sensible precautions do pay. A check on the fittings and fastenings could show how easy it would be for a thief to enter, and how secure the home could be made for a few pounds.

Why not ask your local Crime Prevention Officer for advice? It is free. Just apply to your local police station. Or call in at a local clinic: Tues. Oct. 19 North Finchley Library (5.30—7.30 pm); Wed. Oct. 20 Fern Room, Salisbury Rd. Barnet (2—5 pm); Thurs. Oct. 21 East Barnet Library (6—8 pm). Barnet South Community Association, Mays Lane (10 am—noon) and Post Office, High Rd. Whetstone (9.30 am—noon).

THE RANSACKING OF SUBURBIA

Everyone is talking about the shocking increase in muggings in central London, while the disturbing new wave of burglaries in the suburbs goes barely noticed.

It is a tidal wave of crime which has all but swamped local Police — whole divisions spend the bulk of their time in often futile investigations.

Futile, because in most cases burglaries are only discovered and reported when the burgled occupant returns home from work.

The time lapse between break-in and the Police being informed often leaves plenty of time for criminals to make a leisurely getaway.

DAYLIGHT ROBBERY

Even if intruders leave forensic evidence it's usually very little to go on, generally only footprints, and if there are fingerprints, chances are they belong to a youngster, unknown to the fingerprint files.

One way is for householders to take the lead and install an alarm or security locks, which admittedly deter thieves up to a point.

But it has been proven time and time again that these are only a minor inconvenience to a thief.

SET A PHONE TO CATCH A THIEF

Now there's a revolutionary new type of alarm system which detects fires, gas, intruders, in fact almost any domestic threat.

In an emergency, sensors throughout the house feed information down existing telephone lines to a central computer.

Within seconds the computer establishes what and where the problem is and prints out to a security agency with a 24-hour surveillance service, which alerts the appropriate emergency service. All could take less than a minute.

The makers, Scannex Security Systems Ltd, have already installed these new systems in many London homes and business premises.

Hopefully, then, the tide is beginning to turn in this new crime wave.

METROPOLITAN POLICE
CRIME PREVENTION ADVICE

We know what he's doing. In 54 seconds the Police will.

With a Scannex Security System, a burglar gets no closer to your possessions than this without the Police knowing.

Because Scannex fit tamper detectors at every entry point. Force a door or break a window and a call is transmitted to Scannex Central Computer.

Central Control immediately alerts the Police. Passing on vital information – like whether children or elderly relatives are at risk.

Suppose I let a burglar in?

A con-man posing as an Official may well talk his way past your security system. What can you do if he threatens you?

Press your pocket transmitter. This has the same effect as your tamper detectors, except the Police will be told that you are in physical danger.

This portable transmitter will also alert emergency services if you suffer a sudden heart attack, your home catches fire or you're mugged within 100 yds. of your front door.

Total Security, how much money?

Scannex is no more expensive than conventional alarm systems. Even the type everyone hears yet ignores.

Like all forms of insurance, Scannex can be paid for gradually.

What to do next.

Obviously, you'd rather talk Scannex over with a sympathetic expert than make a hasty decision.

In which case phone 961 6262 or return the coupon to us.

Still Undecided?

Take your time, don't hurry, decide how far into your home you'd like a burglar to reach before the Police are informed.

Bear in mind that a London home is ransacked every 3 mins. You've plenty of time. Haven't you?

I'm interested in Scannex Security Systems, and would like further information.

Still full of bounce

THIRTY-SIX YEARS ago long before transistors and ready-made transmitters, the Grafton Radio Society was formed. It is still an enthusiastic group of all ages and professions, using Morse keys, television, computers and microphones to communicate be it one mile or many thousands away. Maybe direct or through amateur satellites circling the earth or even bouncing signals off the surface of the moon to other amateurs. Some are just interested in electronics or short-wave listeners and may be studying for the Radio Amateur examinations.

If any reader is interested please come along to any of our meetings and outside events with no obligations at all. Our headquarters is the small hall rear of the Five Bells Public House, East End Road, Finchley, half a mile east from the Manor Cottage on the North Circular Road. The meetings are on the second and fourth Fridays in the month at 8 pm for 8.30 start.

We have regular speakers on many interesting topics, not all about radio, and we also have several outdoor events a year. These are very popular in the summer months.

FUNDS FOR MAGAZINE

THE RESIDENTS of John Grooms are holding an Autumn Bazaar to raise funds for our quarterly magazine 'Groonicide' on November 6 at 2 pm in the hall at John Grooms Estate, Edgware Way, Edgware.

This is our seventh annual bazaar and we are hoping, with Barnet residents' support, to raise as much money as possible and set a new record. There will be handicraft, white elephant, cakes, jewellery and other stalls.

'Hello Dolly!' will have a great cast of over 70, accompanied by a professional orchestra. The costumes are magnificent and we feel that this excellent show will provide a most enjoyable evening's entertainment for all the family. Prices range from £1.25 to £2.50 with half prices for Senior Citizens, children and the disabled.

If Gilbert and Sullivan is more to your taste we shall be welcoming new members for our production of 'Princess Ida', Commencing on Thursday, October 28, our rehearsals will culminate in a fully staged version of this delightful show in March 1983.

So whatever your musical tastes, and whether you are seeking an evening's entertainment or an absorbing hobby we'll be pleased to hear from you.

MARRIAGE GUIDANCE

WHEN BARNET, Haringey and Hertsmerre Marriage Guidance Council held their annual meeting at the Civic Hall, Elstree Way, Borehamwood, on Tuesday, November 9 at 8 pm, their president, Judge Eric Stockdale, will be retiring after 10 years' service.

He will introduce his successor, Judge John Burkett Baker who is himself a fully trained counsellor, so he is well acquainted with the council's work.

The speaker will be Dr. Jack Dominian and his subject will be 'The future of marriage'.

Although the emphasis will be on Dr. Dominian's subject, the council hope that Civic News readers may wish to offer their services as counsellors.

If anyone wants to learn more of our work and ways in which they can help, they have only to telephone or write to me — Patricia Gilks, Marriage Guidance Council, 5 Woodhouse Road, North Finchley, N12 (445 8522) and I will see they have invitations to the meeting or any further information they require.

From paper to people

HOLIDAYS are now over and no doubt many of our citizens have been to America this summer (or in recent years) on visits — and in an increasing number of cases — to relations or friends who are now living there for employment or retirement reasons.

America is our greatest ally, and any temporary political 'hiccups' which we may have from time to time, cannot disguise the special relationship that exists between our two English-speaking countries.

Is it not time that we did something positive about it?

We have active Twinings with two towns in France, two in Germany and one in Israel. When the London Borough of Barnet was formed in 1964 it automatically took over these Twinings, and it also took over the Twinning established (almost exclusively on paper) a considerable number of years previously by the then Borough of Finchley, with the town of Montclair in New Jersey USA. Montclair is not far from New York, is mainly residential with lots of trees and open spaces and not unlike many such areas in our own Borough.

I intend to activate this link from pen and paper to people by setting up 'The Friends of

Plans for expansion

BARNET Victims Support Scheme was finally launched on June 1, 1982, when we began to receive our first referrals from two local police stations. It has taken over a year to do all the necessary groundwork but we now have 12 accredited volunteers and a co-ordinator in action.

Already there is discussion about expanding the scheme to cover the rest of Barnet. At present referrals are coming from Barnet and Whetstone but it is hoped we can soon include Finchley and Hendon.

For those who have not already heard about this scheme it is a voluntary organisation set up to help the victims of crime by supporting and befriending them in an attempt to reduce the stress and suffering in times of crisis.

We are trying to attract members of the community rather than officials from statutory agencies because this is an expression of community concern. By reaching out to offer understanding and help, and by recognising that even a seemingly Montclair'. This will be run independently from the Council, and bearing in mind the present financial circumstances, it will not be asking for a grant from the Council or its rate-payers.

The basic aims of the Friends of Montclair will be:

- To promote and foster goodwill and understanding between the communities of the London Borough of Barnet and Montclair.

- To encourage and arrange contacts, and also adult and school exchange visits between the two towns.

- To liaise with other local organisations (sporting, educational, cultural, etc.) to further the ideals of international co-operation and understanding.

So what can you do?

I would very much appreciate hearing as soon as possible from anyone who would be interested to become a member of the Friends of Montclair, and where appropriate what they could do to help in administration, running social and other events, and any useful contacts they may have here or in America.

Have a nice day!

trivial offence can have a major impact on any victim, young or old, such a scheme can provide an effective source to meet previously neglected needs.

Our team of volunteer visitors have been vetted and have received a short basic training. In addition they attend periodic support groups to help them to give the practical and emotional help which may be required by the victims. They need to be warm, outgoing people with a capacity to stick with difficult situations and to show care and concern for others.

This is not a paid job but expenses can be covered. More volunteer visitors will be needed fairly soon, and a co-ordinator. For further details please contact me on 440 9241.

London's Local Ombudsman

GREATER LONDON and South East England has a new Local Ombudsman. David Yardley, who has been a Professor of Law at University College, Buckingham, Oxford Polytechnic and Birmingham University, took up the post on October 1, succeeding Baroness Serota.

He has a wide knowledge of both law and local government. He gained his law degree at Birmingham University in 1949 and his doctorate in philosophy at Oxford in 1953. He was called to the bar as a barrister of Gray's Inn in 1952.

He is 53, married with four children, and lives in Oxford where he was the University Member of the former Oxford City Council from 1966 to 1974, serving as a committee chairman for two years.

This knowledge is now placed in the service of all who live in the South East of England and who feel that they have a genuine complaint that an injustice has been done in the area of Local Government and such statutory authorities as water boards, joint planning boards and the police authorities.

The Ombudsman is completely independent and can investigate complaints of injustice caused by a fault in the way a council or authority has done something — or perhaps failed to do something. He is a watchdog who safeguards the rights of the ordinary resident and his service is free.

However, the local Ombudsman is not there to listen to complaints by residents who don't agree with the council. There must have been an injustice caused probably by maladministration.

Things like:

- Neglect or unjustified delay.
- Failure to stick to the council's own rules and policies.
- Unfair discrimination.
- Failure to take relative matters into account.
- Faulty systems of doing things.
- Or failure to tell people of their rights.

Nor does the Ombudsman expect to be the first to receive the complaint. Any resident with a problem should first take it up with the authority concerned to try and get the matter dealt with satisfactorily. If the officers of the council or authority cannot help the resident should turn to a local councillor or to the Citizens' Advice Bureau for help.

The Ombudsman is the final resort.

It is very important, therefore, that any complaint to the Ombudsman goes forward in the correct way. Last year nearly 2,000 complaints were made direct to the Ombudsman from members of the public, and they could not be dealt with and so had to be referred back with directions on the correct procedure.

To place any matter before the Ombudsman for investigation you need to put your complaint into writing and ask a local councillor to take it up with the Ombudsman.

Complaints can range over a wide field of council and other activities — housing and planning are always top of the Ombudsman's investigations list. But there are also many things outside his power to investigate such as matters which should go to a court or tribunal or complaints against police officers.

A bright yellow booklet called Your Local Ombudsman is available at Barnet Council's Information Office at Ravensfield House, The Burroughs, Hendon, to give more details on what can and cannot be investigated.

Once a complaint is accepted for investigation then it is very thorough and confidential and at the end a report is issued. If the report finds that you have been unjustly treated then the council or authority is asked to take action to put matters right.

In their report for the year ending March 31, 1982, the three local Ombudsmen for England report that they received 2,706 complaints which was 11 per cent up on the previous year.

Of these 607 were not pursued as either they fell outside the Ombudsman's jurisdiction or there was no evidence of maladministration.

The number of complaints investigated to the stage of detailed comments from local authorities was 1,226; 389 complaints were settled locally; and 279 were the subject of full, formal reports.

Overall, only 8 per cent of the investigations accepted showed maladministration. But this rose to 62 per cent of the investigations taken to formal report stage.

Baroness Serota, shortly before handing over office, in her comments as chairman of the local Ombudsmen, says that most councils readily provide remedies even when they do not agree with the findings of an investigation report.

'This positive attitude can only enhance public confidence in local government, particularly when their resources are under severe constraints.'

The address of the Local Ombudsman Service is 21 Queen Anne's Gate, London SW1H 9BU.

Complaints about Central Government Departments should be made through a Member of Parliament to the Parliamentary Ombudsman, Church House, Great Smith Street, London SW1P 3BW.

Complaints of maladministration in the Health Service may be made direct to the Health Service Ombudsman, Church House, Great Smith Street, London SW1P 3BW. Tel: 212 7676.

Help St. Mary's raise the roof

THERE IS still a long way to go towards reaching the £32,000 target for the repair and restoration work of Finchley's Parish Church — St. Mary's.

Originally established in 675 and the Norman church founded in 1100, it is one of the oldest in Middlesex. The vestry records date from the 14th century and its registers from 1560. These show that Finchley was not the law-abiding place it is now but that the common bordering of Great North Road was the haunt of highwaymen.

A recent appeal to business houses in the parish raised £400 of which £200 was given by one firm and the Appeals Committee thank them and other donors for their help.

The Appeals Committee are now asking for more legal ransom. Not your money or your life, but they are asking readers to search their attics or cupboards for items of any kind which they feel that they could give. There are often things 'too good for jumble' which people think they might get rid of one day. Now is the chance.

That vase, antimacassar or other items which sometimes fall on your head when you open that door, may help to raise the roof, not a bump on your head, at an auction sale to be held in St. Mary's Parish Hall on Saturday, November 13. Viewing is on November 12 and admission is by catalogue, 50p. Some people may feel they cannot give the unwanted article for sale. In this case it may be sold on a 50-50 basis.

Mr. Michael Lambert, the Auctioneer of Bairstow Eves and his clerk, Mr. Graeme King, will officiate at the sale.

If you have anything to give please contact one of the following members of the Appeals Committee:

Mrs. Roger Dixon, 51 Arden Road, N3 (Tel: 346 2549); Mrs. L. Yaylor, 106 Lichfield Grove, N3 (346 5166); Miss B. Cann Hughes, 33 Finchley Court, N3 (346 8646); Mr. Bill Davey, 31 Cyprus Avenue, N3 (346 0412); Miss B. Camkin, 10 Woodberry Gardens, N12 (445 9532); Mr. B. Andrews, 87 Lullington Garth, N12 (445 9681); Miss E. Amos, 6 Norman Court, N3 (346 3569).

Does the new Nationality Act affect you?

THE new British Nationality Act becomes law on January 1, 1983. Will it affect you?

Are you any of the following?

- A woman from another country who has ever been married to a British man?
- Likely to have a child born abroad after December 31, 1982?
- A person from a Commonwealth country who has lived here for a long time?

If so, you should ask now about your rights to British citizenship. Your local Citizens Advice Bureau will be able to advise you how the new Act may affect you and your family.

£18,000 'GIANT' OF A CHEQUE

THIS 'giant' cheque for £18,208.91p, the Borough of Barnet's contribution to the South Atlantic Fund, was handed over by the Mayor of Barnet, Cllr Vic Usher, to Major Andrew Pemberton (second left), of the 14-20 King's Hussars, assistant secretary to the fund, in the Mayor's Parlour.

Also in the picture are members of the small Barnet 'Task Force' who played a major role

The money was raised by a concert at Inglis Barracks in which the top stars were Frankie Vaughan, Bernard Bresslaw, David Berglas and the comedy group, Barley. All gave their services free for the evening.

Under the energetic leadership of Major Lyons and with the permission of Col. Rolph James, the gymnasium at Inglis Barracks was turned into a fashionable night club for the evening, the chefs produced a magnificent Ascot-style buffet and the girls acted as waitresses for the bar facilities.

The flying philatelists

Approximately 100 frames will display exhibits by leading aerophilatelists in the museum's art gallery which has excellent lighting facilities and up to 30 dealer's stands will be sited in the foyer and elsewhere.

There will also be a hot air balloon flight (weather permitting) carrying covers to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the first flight of the Montgolfier unmanned balloon in 1782.

On the Saturday a special 'Day of Aerophilately' handstamp will be available.

On Saturday the exhibition is open from 10 am to 6 pm and on Sunday from 2 to 6 pm.

Praise for Barnet Red Cross

ALTHOUGH it had already proved its worth during the TUC's day of action earlier in the week, it was not until Saturday, September 25, that Barnet Red Cross Centre's new ambulance was officially handed over.

Our picture shows Cllr. Victor Lyon, chairman of Barnet Council's Social Services Committee, handing the keys to Mrs.

Also in the picture are Red Cross volunteers who paraded in uniform to meet Col. Ultan Ryan, Director General of the London Branch of the British Red Cross Society.

Cllr. Lyon, praising the Barnet Red Cross Society for their initiative and hard work, said that Barnet, as a borough, was a great believer in the value of voluntary services.

The centre raised £500 to buy the ambulance from the London Ambulance Service and public donations helped pay the £1,600 to convert the vehicle.

Conference on teenage unemployed

REPRESENTATIVES from local schools and colleges, the careers service, youth and community workers, police and probation officers, local employers and voluntary groups have been invited to a day conference this month to discuss the needs of Barnet's unemployed school leavers and consider what more could be done to help them find jobs or adjust to living on the dole.

The conference, organised by Barnet Voluntary Service Council in conjunction with Barnet Borough Council, will examine the extent of the problem in Barnet and take a hard look at what help youngsters get before and after leaving school in search of a job.

Places at the conference to be held on Wednesday, October 20, are limited. The conference fee is £3. Anyone interested in attending should apply immediately to Barnet Voluntary Service Council, 275 Regents Park Road, Finchley, N3, telephone 346 9723. A report of the conference will be published, price £1 from the above address. Please send a large stamped addressed envelope.

SHOW JUMPING'S NEW SPONSORS

THE HISTORIC LAWNS of Knebworth House in the Hertfordshire countryside provided an ideal setting for an interesting and spectacular event organised by the Knebworth Park Show Jumping Club and featuring the Southern England Championships 1982. It was held on two days — Tuesday, September 7 and Saturday, September 11.

The event was sponsored by Pannells of London, the city's largest Toyota dealers who have premises at Finchley Road, Golders Green and High Road, East Finchley. The Championships were held on the lawns of Knebworth House by permission of the Hon. David Lytton and the Lytton Enterprises.

The main events attracted many of England's top riders and horses. The Junior events were strongly contested by a most impressive entry of Hertfordshire youngsters which gave good evidence of the great new interest taken by the young families in the country in horses and riding as a healthy and locally available form of leisure activity, an interest which is growing year by year.

A significant aspect of this event too, was the attraction to Knebworth House of new local sponsors in Pannells of London.

Congratulations from Mr Donald Pannell after he had presented a rosette to one of the winners.

Community workshop

BARNET Arts Workshop has set up a community screen printing workshop for residents and groups in the borough.

The idea behind the Community Printspace is for local groups, voluntary organisations and individuals to be able to print their own posters and T-shirts at cost price. Help and guidance is available.

An introductory course on screen printing will be held on Friday, October 15 from 10.30 am to 12.30 am (50p for cost of materials). Ring Ann Latimer on 346 7120 for more information and to book a place.

On Wednesdays from 1.30 to 3 pm there is a women's silk-screening group with shared creche. Come and design your own poster or Christmas card. The tutor is Frances Sanders. The term fee is £3 plus 50p each session.

Children aged 10 and over can also find out how simple print making is. Bring an overall. The tutor is Maureen Rapankis.

You will find Barnet Arts Workshop at Avenue House, East End Road, Finchley (tel: 346 7120).

NEWS ROUND-UP

THE Barnet Drama Youth Centre at 142 High Road, East Finchley, has been in existence since 1969 and is a fully-equipped theatre.

Tuition is given every evening except Saturday and Sunday, and there are regular productions. Several members have gained entry to leading drama schools and into the profession.

There are a few vacancies for both sexes, aged 14 and over. Professional tuition is given and anyone wanting to learn to act or go to drama school, should go along to the centre between 7.30 and 10 pm.

The centre's current productions are 'Tess of the D'Urbervilles' on Saturday, November 6 at 7 pm and Sunday, November 7 at 4 pm; and 'The Prodigious Snob', on Saturday and Sunday, December 4 and 5 at 7.30 pm and 4 pm respectively.

Tickets are 75p. Telephone 959 5052 or the centre on 883 9957.

AFTER 30 years' service in the Police Force, the last 25 with the Finchley and Golders Green Police, Pc Arthur Noble has just retired.

For the past 15 years he has been Crime Prevention Officer and Press Liaison Officer for the area.

He joined the Police in 1952 and for the first five years served in the Westminster area. His duties took him inside No. 10 Downing Street and into the grounds of various Royal Homes. He met members of the Royal Family and famous personalities, including Sir Winston Churchill, Sir Anthony Eden and Ernest Bevin.

During the early 1970s he was chairman of the 'S' Division International Police Association for five years.

His successor as Crime Prevention Officer is Pc Peter Heywood.

THE TRUSTEES of Totteridge Village Hall are holding an Antique Fair on Saturday, October 23.

In addition to the displays of the antique dealers, there will be stalls for the sale of plants, home produce, cakes, preserves and other goods. Refreshments will be available.

It is hoped that many Barnet residents will visit the fair at Badgers Croft, Totteridge Village, to help the trustees to fund the upkeep of the hall.

Turning back the clock

THE Townswomen of the Hendon Federation are to turn back the clock to Edwardian times on October 29 at Hartley Hall, Flower Lane, Mill Hill, where they are staging a day depicting that more gracious era.

The Mayor of Barnet, Councillor Vic Usher, will open the day at 11 am. To illustrate all aspects of Edwardian life, it is hoped there will be a mannequin parade, an entertainment of songs and monologues, and each Guild will arrange a display portraying home life.

'ACORNS', a non-sectarian club for women, meets during the day in the East Finchley area and has a fortnightly programme of interesting and varied talks where women can meet and make friends in a relaxed atmosphere.

There is also a variety of social events, outings and evening meetings. A creche is available for young children.

The club are looking for new members so if you want to join telephone Elizabeth on 446 3480.

NEED MONEY — UP TO £75,000?

NEED MONEY? Call us!

You may be surprised that there is at least one organisation in the U.K. which is willing to loan substantial sums of money for business or personal use. So if you are looking for finance to start up on your own (and you are a freeholder, or a leaseholder with at least 30 years to run), look no further than your own home.

Apart from being the place where you live it's probably the ideal security for a loan of UP TO £75,000 and even more on commercial lending, with terms up to 15 years. As Credit Brokers for a U.K. subsidiary of an international organisation we can tell you more about these valuable loans.

In addition to business ventures you can also use these loans to finance major home improvements, your children's education, a new car or caravan, a world cruise, even paying off existing debts and obligations to consolidate them into a single monthly payment.

Our A.P.R. is only 23% (variable).

CLEARING BARNET'S STREAMS

1982 WILL BE remembered as the year of the freak storms.

Since the first storms struck twice in the first week in June engineers from the drainage section of the Borough Engineer and Surveyor's Department have been carrying out detailed inspections of the local streams, noting areas where debris could build up and cause a possible flood.

The network of streams and brooks within the borough forms part of the natural surface water drainage system which is designed to cope with the run-off from storms which would normally occur once in two years.

Refuse dumping

There are three main complexes of streams running through the borough. On the west is the Silkstream with its numerous tributaries flowing from Edgware through Burnt Oak to the Welsh Harp Reservoir in West Hendon. Through the centre runs Dollis Brook feeding into the River Brent through to the Welsh Harp. On the east is Pymmes Brook which crosses into Enfield and eventually flows into the River Lea.

One of the biggest problems in this area is the dumping of rubbish into the stream beds. Since the summer survey of the streams began the engineers have been discovering all types of refuse blocking the entrances to culverts and damming the narrower reaches.

In the Clitterhouse Ditch two trees had fallen. In themselves they were not obstructing the flow of water but someone had thrown brambles cut down from nearby allotments into the stream bed and this had bound together collecting grass, plastic and other debris in the stream.

Members of the Borough Engineer and Surveyor's Department clearing a large tree branch which was beginning to form a dam in Dollis Brook.

In the Dollis Brook two supermarket trolleys were recovered and in the same stream near Gordon Road rubbish dumpers had been at work, leaving behind an old motorcycle, a washing machine and a heap of household refuse.

In Edgwarebury Brook hedge clippings had blocked the stream leading to floods.

Unpleasant work

Teams from Squires Lane Depot worked in unpleasant conditions to clear the rubbish. But all too often it was replaced by another load of rubbish dumped overnight.

For 1982/83 Barnet Council budgeted £35,000 to maintain its tributary streams. After this summer's storms the figure is likely to be overspent.

The engineers are studying the problem and the Director of Technical Services is preparing a report which will be considered at future meetings of the General Purposes, Development and Estates, Housing and Public Works Committees.

Meanwhile, Councillor Bill Hart, chairman of the Public Works Committee, makes this appeal to all residents in the Borough.

'It is of vital importance — and I use that word in its true sense of life-saving importance — that we should keep our watercourses free from rubbish which can build up into barriers, causing water levels to rise and flood our parks, gardens and even houses.

Co-operation needed

'Our engineers and drainage crews are doing their best to keep the streams clear, but we must depend on public co-operation.

'It is not merely anti-social to throw rubbish into the rivers. It can also be very dangerous. I would appeal to every resident to be aware of the problem and to report any build-up of debris which threatens to block the stream.'

Members of the public should report any blocking of the streams to the Borough Engineer and Surveyor's Department at Gateway House, 322 Regent's Park Road, Finchley, N3, tel. 349 9121. The council are keen to prosecute anyone found dumping refuse in streams or public places. But this is only possible if the name and address of the dumper can be obtained and an eyewitness is willing to give evidence in court.

Tree roots trap all the debris in the stream and must be cleared.

IT'S LIGHT OR LIMB

AUTUMN — season of mists and sorry motorists. The clocks go back and if motoring were a game the umpires would send the drivers off because of bad light. But it's not a game and too many drivers are on the roads with faulty lights on their cars.

Barnet's Road Safety Officer, Alan Piddington, concerned by watching drivers out in the first fogs of September without their headlights on, said: 'It's really a case of Light or Limb. See and be seen is the motto every driver and cyclist should obey.'

Remember light bulbs in cars fail at a rate of 20,000 a day. They don't last for ever. And a car with missing lights is a danger to the driver and other road users. A one headlight car can be mistaken for a motorcyclist by oncoming traffic.

The present fine for having faulty lights is up to £50.

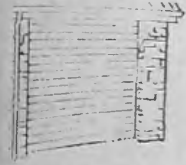

So that cyclists and school children can be seen on the road after dark the Council hold a stock of reflective arm bands. These can be purchased from the Road Safety Office, Gateway House, 322 Regent's Park Road, Finchley, N3. Please send 50p for a pair plus a large stamped and addressed envelope.
